

The Battlefields They Died On.

(Note, for those with “no known grave,” they are honoured with a “memorial” reference, such as at Villers- Bretonneaux. It is here where about a quarter of our ASC men are commemorated. Add to these, those at Anzac; in just these two places, they total almost half of our Dead. On Anzac Day each year, we know of the very big services held at both of the above places.
