FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Fr Paul Woodhart

You might see that on the Calendar we had Confirmation down for this Sunday, I have had to change the date to Saturday, August 20th.

This Sunday we begin a new venture. The Bathurst Anglican Youth Church @ 6.30 will combine with our Boarders, and meet in the Music Centre. I am very excited at this synergy for Term 3. The combined Chapel will begin at 6.30, after dinner.

Happily busy, Father Paul.

The two-year Australian study, “Teachers for a Fair Go project”, tracked teachers who were nominated by their school communities as exemplary. One common characteristic was their passion for learning and their devotion to inspiring a similar love of learning in students. These teachers had an expansive view of learning, meaning they did not limit what their students were taught. They managed to follow the curriculum while also giving the students more responsibility for their learning.

 thoughts: It requires less character to discover the faults of others, than to tolerate them. J. Petit Senn

UNIFORM SHOP NEWS

A large amount of lost property was found at end of Term 2. This includes many navy jumpers, lots of swimmers and joggers – three pairs. Also two pairs of black leather shoes, one with orthotics in a smaller size. These garments may be reunited with their owners in the Uniform Shop on Mondays and Thursdays 8.30am-4pm. Also Tuesdays from 8.30am to 12.30pm. Also due to health concerns the Uniform Shop will not longer be taking second hand hats or caps. Thank you.
FROM THE REGISTER
Mrs Roslyn Cox

I’m sure the All Saints’ community will join me in issuing a warm welcome to Victoria Westenfelder (Year 5), Christian Westenfelder (Year 8) and a warm welcome back to Georgia Pickford (Year 9). The Westenfelders have made a recent move to Bathurst from the Northern Territory and will be making some adjustments for the bracing weather we have had of late!

New Kitchen for boys in Watson House

The new Watson kitchen has been organised by the Boarding P&F and has been funded by both the Whole School P&F and the Boarding P&F. We sincerely thank John Morris and the P&F, Peter Miller, Eliot Sanger, Joel English (Kelso Kitchens), the All Saints’ maintenance staff and Lyndon Wass (designer of the kitchen/Year 12 student) for their interest and support.

The kitchen looks fantastic with black granite-look bench tops, pale blue laminated cupboards, white tiles and a breakfast bar. The appliances include a new electric oven with separate grill and ceramic hotplate, laminated cupboards, white tiles and a breakfast bar. The appliances include pot drawers, cutlery drawers, kitchen tidy, three door rangehood, dishwasher as well as a double bowl stainless steel sink. The new Watson kitchen has been organised by the Boarding P&F and has been funded by both the Whole School P&F and the Boarding P&F. We sincerely thank John Morris and the P&F, Peter Miller, Eliot Sanger, Joel English (Kelso Kitchens), the All Saints’ maintenance staff and Lyndon Wass (designer of the kitchen/Year 12 student) for their interest and support.

Marketing activities have continued apace during the term holidays, with the Mudgee Field Days last Friday and Saturday – and a number of school tours for families and prospective students.

Mudgee is a terrific event for us and we saw some excellent new families, as well as having the opportunity of catching up with current parents and a large number of OBU’s. A special thank you to Lauren Higham for joining us on the stand on Saturday. Lauren did a great job in talking to families and helping us promote the school.

We are heading back to Mudgee next Wednesday, 27 July for our Information Night at the Winning Post Motor Inn, starting at 7pm. Invitations have been sent to prospective, current and past parents – anyone is welcome to attend. Please spread the word if you have friends or family in the area who may be interested in coming along to talk to us.

Invites have been sent to current Year 6 students and their parents to join us for our Senior School Tour – which will be held this year on Monday, 8 August from 11.30am. It will be a terrific opportunity to look at all the facilities and show our existing Year 6 students all the exciting new things ahead of them as they make the important step into Senior School.

We have a sandwich lunch organised in the Kemmis Building following the tour, and will be joined by a number of our teaching staff and tutors who are involved with Year 7- as well as Mrs Murray and Mr Jackman. It should be a great event and I hope that as many Year 6 parents as possible will be able to join us.

A SPECIAL INVITATION

You may have heard your grandmother talk about Confirmation!!

In our Anglican Church the steps of initiation are: Baptism when you or your parents decide to follow in the way of Jesus Christ.

Then when you are able to understand, you can be admitted to First Communion.

The big commitment is at Confirmation, when you confirm for yourself the promises made at your Baptism. You make a stand for your faith in Jesus Christ and want to be a member of his Church.

Bishop Richard, our Diocesan Leader will be visiting All Saints' College to conduct a Confirmation service on Saturday, August 20th at 3pm.

Would you like to be Confirmed or, if you have not already done so, be Baptised and then Confirmed at this service? Father Paul will be leading four Confirmation sessions on Wednesdays from 5-6pm in the Junior School Library.
