OVERVIEW

This 16-day program designed specifically for All Saints' College addresses key areas of the NSW Geography and Modern and Ancient History syllabuses. In depth visits to historic and archaeological sites, as well as museums and documentary centres, are balanced with cultural activities. Several days are spent in three of the great European capitals - London, Paris and Rome - exploring the diversity of iconic monuments, art, architecture and culture on offer. The tour is fully escorted by a professional tour manager.
