The Under 7 Rugby Players will be participating in a rugby match at The Scots School on Friday 21st August at 4.00pm. Good luck boys!

New Facebook Page
All Saints’ has recently launched a new Facebook page and I encourage everyone to ‘Like’ the page. It is a great way for parents to see what is happening around the College. It does not replace the comprehensive College website but provides an additional avenue for the College to communicate with the community.

PJ and Popcorn Night
On Thursday, 27th August the Kindergarten, Year 1 and Year 2 will be having a PJ and Popcorn night in the library as part of the Bookweek activities organised by the school.

Junior School Assemblies
All parents are welcome to attend Junior School assemblies. In the warmer months they are conducted on the Outdoor Assembly area and during the colder months we move into the Kemmis Building. Assemblies begin at 9.00am.

This week the Pre-Kinder children have been busy preparing for Father’s Day, learning about the letter ‘z’, positions in space and hygiene. We rolled marbles in black paint to give zebras their stripes, cut zig-zag lines to make a zipper, danced the Zum Gali, Gali and positioned teddies in, on, under, over and beside a container. During this time of year it’s important to revisit the topic of hygiene and the importance of coughing into our elbow and washing our hands. Some interesting gadgets from the shed and kitchen have also been brought in for news this week. Mrs Card, Father Tony’s wife, is now taking the children for Christian Studies. We look forward to hearing more stories from the bible with her. I asked the children what they like doing with their Dad and have included some of their responses below. We would like to thank Mrs Rivett for her help in the classroom and look forward to sharing a yummy breakfast with our Dads and Pops at the Father’s Day breakfast. Kind Regards, Deb Porter

ASC Jaguars

On Saturday 15th ASC Jaguars played the Collegians Popstars, in a nail biting game. All the girls were on fire and able to read the play of the game to be where they needed to be. This really showed in the score, as they were equal until the last five minutes of the game, when the Popstars shot a late goal beating us by one point. It was very hard to pick a player of the match this week, as all the girls are so deserving and playing so well, but Hannah Stanmore just had the edge and was well chosen. Thank you to our coaches Emily and Mrs Edwards for all their hard work, and all the parents who watch us each week. Olivia and Mrs Brabham

ASC Tiger Cubs

Combine a bunch of enthusiastic young girls, a netball court, a ball, and an opposition on the back of an exciting week of World Cup netball and you have everything you could hope for in terms of a great netball match. Saturday’s match was played in terrific spirit and notably every ‘tigercub’ has improved since the beginning of the season. It is great to see the girls now moving to find space, passing with greater strength and direction, sinking the goals and playing more like a team. Much like the Aussie Diamonds, the girls snuck ahead and held their lead until the final buzzer. It was a thrilling victory but the result instantly became irrelevant as the post-match treats were handed out! Special mention must go to ‘player of the match’ Ruby Thorne, who played with great determination throughout the match.

Minkey Hockey Report - 15.8.15

It was lovely to see the sun out once again at the Cooke Hockey Complex. All Saints did some drills before playing St. Pats Red. The whole team took turns defending the goal, making fearless tackles and hitting the ball towards the opposition’s goal. Ayla was awarded, ‘Player of the Day’ for her concentration and overall improvement. We thank Harry for coming along and supporting the team during his convalescence and hope he can join us on the field next Saturday. Despite not having our full team, All Saints’ managed to win 4-0. Goals were scored by Sam (1) and Sian (3)! Deb Porter, (Under 7s Coach)

Minkey Presentation - August 29th

9.45am – Short skills session followed by the medal presentation and free sausage sizzle for players!
You have heard me say on numerous occasions that Jesus’ message and teachings were counter-cultural when he came and still are today. His teaching on how we should serve each other is a prime example of this. Through his own example of servant leadership we see that Jesus was one whose driving principle was to serve. Rather than being the leader with an extended entourage of stylists, advisors, assistants and “hangers-on”, all ready to meet his every need, we see Jesus constantly giving of himself to help others in need.

Our Year 9 students have recently completed an assessment task where they had to choose a public figure and discuss how they displayed the characteristics that Jesus spoke about in the Sermon on the Mount. A number of students chose to write about people like Bill Gates and Oprah Winfrey, both excellent examples of people who have used their wealth and influence to serve others. There were also a number who chose examples like Nelson Mandela and Mother Theresa, who served others not out of their wealth but with their time, energy, and indeed their lives.

So whatever walk of life we come from, whether we have wealth or not, we have the ability, and indeed the responsibility to serve those around us in love. May we each find a way that we can achieve this and live out our freedom in Christ.

Operation Christmas Child

I am excited by the response to Operation Christmas Child so far this year. I ordered 200 boxes and had about 30 left over from last year. Almost all of these have been taken and are starting to come back in! I will have a further 100 boxes here from Monday so if you have been thinking about supporting this but haven’t yet got around to it then you can get a box next week.

This is an excellent way that we can serve others.

With every blessing,
Rev. Tony Card.

Thought for the week: “But I am among you as one who serves.” (Luke 22:27, NRSV)

The shortlisted book for this week in the Younger Readers category, (Year 3-6), is Withering-by-Sea by Judith Rossell.

High on a cliff above the gloomy coastal town of Withering-by-Sea stands the Hotel Majestic. Inside the walls of the damp, dull hotel, eleven-year-old orphan Stella Montgomery leads a miserable life with her three dreadful Aunts. But one night, Stella sees something she shouldn’t have... Something that will set in motion and adventure more terrifying and more wonderful than she could ever have hoped for... (goodreads, 2015).

This week we needed to read the last two books in the Early Childhood category (Kindergarten –Year 2); of Her Own by Jenny Hughes and Noni the Pony goes Beach by Alison Lester.

Audrey is bigger than she was yesterday. Now she needs house, so she tells her dad to build her one. At the top of an ideal house. It has a bathtub for snorkelling, a place to and somewhere to hide the dirty cups. The house is every way - except for one thing (goodreads, 2015).

Noni the Pony is friendly and funny. She loves going down to the beach when it’s sunny. With her two very best friends Dave Dog and Coco the Cat, and the cows from next door, it’s going to be a wonderful day (goodreads, 2015).

This week students in Kindergarten – Year 2 voted for their choice Year.

Years 3 and 4 are looking at the Picture Book of the and this week’s book is Rivertime category by Trace Balla.

10-year-old Clancy and his bird-watching Uncle Egg embark on a Australian Glenelg 10-day paddling trip down the River. Along the way Clancy learns about different species of birds and is surprised to learn how much he enjoys slowing down in this life-changing and learning experience. Illustrated in the style of a graphic novel, this tender and sweetly drawn tale about a boy and his uncle’s canoe trip is sure to inspire a love of nature and the environment in young children. (goodreads, 2015).

Kindergarten, Year 1 and Year 2 students – Don’t forget to bring your note for money for pizza to Mrs Keogh by Monday!
