Sudden cardiac arrest can happen anywhere, any time; at a sporting event, at the beach, at home or at work. One thing always remains the same – the first 5 minutes hold the key to survival. Early high-quality CPR can double or triple the chance of survival, and the best part? Anyone can do it.

Take Heart Australia, Emergency Medics Australia and NSW Ambulance invite you to be part of a Guinness World Record attempt in CPR training for Take Heart Australia Day 2015. Come and say hello to emergency services, enjoy a sausage sizzle and most importantly learn how to save a life! Did we mention it’s completely free to attend?

TAKE PART. TAKE HEART.

Over 30,000 Aussies suffer sudden cardiac arrest every year… and only 10% survive. If more Australians knew basic CPR, we could turn that statistic right around. Join us on the 30th of November for a day of free CPR and emergency training at All Saints’ College Bathurst.

Last Wednesday the PK3 & 5 children and staff enjoyed dressing up for the day. A welcoming party quickly gathered at the door, eagerly awaiting each new character. A fun day was had by all! By the time the VIM is emailed the 2 and 3-Day Pre-kinder Christmas concerts will be over. It was fantastic that so many family and friends could be present for an important chapter in a Pre-Kinder child’s life. We look forward to our picnic at Peace Park next Wednesday with our families to conclude our very action-packed year in Pre-kindergarten. I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a safe and relaxing holiday.

Reminders:
Sat Nov 28: 12 noon - Pre-Kinder Disco at the Panorama Hotel.
Wed Dec 2: 11am-1pm - Pre-Kinder picnic @ Peace Park near the Girl Guide Hall

Kind Regards, Deb Porter

Riley and Tess tap the beat to the ‘Donkey Goes Clip, Clop’ song.

PK3 and Mrs Card celebrate the last Christian Studies lesson and Jesus’ Birthday.

Siena and Ava used pony beads and toothpicks to add features to their snowmen.

Happy Birthday, Imogen!

Don’t mess with Lola! She has handcuffs!

FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Reverend Tony Card

O come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

Well we have made it to that time of the year again…just a few days left and school is done for another year. The shops are filled with decorations and promotions. There are songs about snow and reindeer and the birth of a baby. It must be nearly Christmas! It is! It is!

Now I don’t want to put you in a panic but as you read this there are less than thirty days until Christmas. Less than thirty days to buy the presents, decorate the house, plan the Christmas Day menu, and work out who is coming over or where whose house you’re going to. It’s enough to make you exhausted already. Let me encourage you to take some time out and join us in one of our two Carol’s Services next Wednesday; Junior School at 5.30pm and Senior School at 7.00pm, with both being held at All Saints’ Cathedral.

These events promise to be another entertaining and respectful way for us to end the year and enter into the Christmas season. The services will be led by the students with many involved in Bible readings, prayers, and music. Our Prefects will also be running a Tear Australia Useful Gifts Shop. If you are looking for a gift that lasts and lasts bring some cash and see the prefects. So come, adore him, he is Christ the Lord!

With every blessing,
Rev. Tony Card.
