From the Chaplain

I have had a most satisfying time in Chapel going through John’s Gospel accounts of people on the way to Easter. I hope that our students will know and then weave these ways of God into their lives.

This Sunday I will take the Britten Boys in to the Cathedral for Church @6.30 with Rev Phil Howes.

I will take in-house Chapels for the other boarders during the week.

I look forward to seeing many parents at the Bathurst Show.

WORLD YOUTH AIDS DAY

Congratulation to Annabelle Kennett who organised this day on Tuesday. Students were encouraged to wear red mufti clothes and make a donation to Students Partnership Worldwide which is a branch of Australian Volunteers International. This money will be used to help fund health programs in Tanzania next year specifically with women and students. Annabelle will be directly involved in these programs.

GROUP PHOTOGRAPHS

Our second day for school photographs will take place on 6th March. This is the day we take House photographs, some Year group photos as well as music groups. Please be aware that blazers and long pants are required for the boys and white socks and blazers for the girls.

Thought: The most wasted of all days is one without laughter. EE Cummings

NO BULL AT BLAYNEY

Our Year 10 and 11 Agriculture students spent a long but rewarding day at the Blayney show last weekend. It was their first show for the year and they were entering in showing steers, paraders and junior judging. Congratulations must go to Jaffa (Danielle Plumber, Ffyona Morgan-Thomas) placed first in lightweight steers, Chance (Tim Field) second and Rage (Elizabeth Cozens) third. Turbo (James Clark, Nadia Rees) was placed second in the medium weight steers and Inman (Emma Croake) second in the heavy weights. In the Champions of Champions, Jaffa won the Reserve steer. We look forward to the Bathurst Show this weekend to see if we can improve on these results.

Bathurst Toastmasters

Communication skills are a vital ingredient in all walks of life. As you leave school and enter the work force you will in time need to know how to make a business presentation, deliver a sales pitch, entertain customers, give both formal and informal speeches, or even how to relate a funny story.

You can learn all these skills and many more at Bathurst Toastmasters.

In a mutually supportive atmosphere, you can learn all the attributes needed for public speaking and, at the same time, acquire self-confidence. Meetings focus on the enjoyment of participants, with a strong emphasis on humour. You will obtain progressive certification of your achievements, which are recognised throughout the business world.

Once you turn 17 years you can attend the Toastmaster meetings, held on the 1st and 3rd Monday of each month at the Bathurst Panthers Club from 7pm. As a club guest you can observe and, if you wish, you are welcome to participate.

Your ability to enter the workforce and have a successful career in your chosen field will be enhanced by becoming a member of Toastmasters.
