FROM THE ASSISTANT HEAD OF COLLEGE (SS)

ADVANCE NOTICE
The Bathurst 1000 has only just been run and we have had confirmation of next year’s dates which are different to what we expected. Consequently, we have had to change our Term 4 start. Parents, in particular Boarding parents, please note that Boarders return Monday 13th of October and classes resume Tuesday 14th October.

BRIAN BOOTH
One of Bathurst’s famous sons, Brian Booth, ex-Australian cricketer will be speaking at the Bathurst Community Church service 10am on the 11th in the Hall of South Bathurst Public School. Sir Donald Bradman described him as “a no fuss, non flamboyant unflustered gentleman of cricket”. An invitation has been extended to our school community to listen to his speech.

PREFECTS’ CAMP
Next Monday and Tuesday our newly appointed Prefects will attend an induction camp. On the camp they will do such activities as the characteristics of good leaders, team physical challenges that involve cooperation, initiative and lateral thinking, problem solving and effective communications.

WORLD SKILL
Our Yr 11 Hospitality students have been on work-placement for the last 3 days as part of their requirements to have industry experience. Tomorrow, they are taking part in the World Skills Challenge (Western Region). This is a competition that tests student’s skills in cookery and/or food and beverage. The cookery team has to prepare a three course meal meeting specific skill outcomes while the food and beverage team has to meet all criteria in the correct serving of food and drink. We wish them well.

ATTENTION ALL DADS

November @ Saints
• Grow a mo during November and raise awareness among guys for the need to talk about their health.
• Lots of fun & prizes for the best moustache.
• Register with Mr Cant on p.cant@saints.nsw.edu.au

Farmers Markets
A reminder that the Farmers Markets is on this coming weekend. It is at Lions Berry Park this weekend (not the Bathurst Showground). Please visit the All Saints’ stand.

Vaccinations: HPV
NSW Area Health will return to ASC on Friday, 26th October, to administer the HPV vaccine. The vaccinations will take place in the clinic at 9.30am.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN
I look forward to the Boarder’s farewell BBQ for Stuart and Sally McIntosh on Saturday afternoon; we will have our Boarders Chapel on Sunday morning at 11. The invitation is our to Britten House to come for a Chaplain’s Lunch after. I will be taking the bus in to the Cathedral at 4.15 on Sunday afternoon for any who would like to come to church@6.30. Thank you, Father Paul.

P&F Meeting
The Senior School P&F to be held next Tuesday 30th October in the senior school library at 7.30pm. All welcome.

Jo ROSS ART
SILENT AUCTION
Cobblestone Gallery
Friday 9 November 2007, 6.30 for 7.00pm

Councilor Jo (Josephine) ROSS contributed significantly to the welfare of our city especially during the years of 1993 to 1996 as a local government representative. Jo Ross was a natural environmentalist and considered “green” issues as most significant well before “green” became fashionable. She was an outspoken advocate for women’s issues on a male dominated council. She was also a most talented artist; among other achievements she won the Bathurst Art Prize for the 50th Anniversary of Victory in the Pacific. It is her sons, Ben and Steve’s request that her legacy be used to benefit specific environmental projects in Bathurst.

Match report All Saints’ 1st XI

All Saints’ 1st XI opened the 07/08 ISA 2nd division competition with a strong win over Stannies 2nds at All Saints’ on Saturday. After winning the toss and electing to bat, Stannies were bowled out inside the first 15 overs for 41 due to superb opening spells by Joe Coughlan 5/19 and Ryan Smiles 3/9.

Ben Curran looked in good form at the top of the order, but after he fell to Coughlan, there was little resistance to the pace and swing of the All Saints’ bowlers.

In the chase for maximum bonus points All Saints’ fell a few runs short of that target, but ran out strong winners with a final total of 141.

Main run scorers were Cameron Picker 33, Coughlan 38 and Anthony Hibberson 25.

For Stannies, Alex Sparks was the stand out bowler with 6 wickets, while James Burton chipped in with 2 late wickets.

This first up win is a confidence boost for All Saints’ having nominated for the 2nd division this season, as part of a rebuilding program, with the goal this year to make the semi finals in this division.

Next week All Saints’ have a test of player depth when they host the strong St Pius X without the services of Joe Coughlan on representative duties.

Stannies have the bye.
