The process of selecting subjects for next year begins in earnest shortly. The final parent teacher interview requests (for Year 8 and 9 Day students) are due tomorrow, 13th June. Following that, subject selection information will be sent home to all boarding parents and will be given to all students. If you do not receive these from your child or with your report, please let me know. After a presentation on the evening of Year 10 parent teacher interviews at the beginning of next term, students will then have a couple of weeks to finalise their selections. Details will be included in the material distributed. A similar process will follow a couple of weeks later for Year 8 and 9 students selecting subjects for next year. If you have any questions about the process of subject selection, please do not hesitate to contact me at the College.
