LITERATURE FESTIVAL
Next Monday to Wednesday sees the 2014 ASC Literature Festival. This year we have four exciting illustrators giving workshops over three days. Freya Blackwood, from Orange, has illustrated a number of books and also worked as a visual effects technician on the Lord of the Rings trilogy. Nicki Greenberg, who sold around 380,000 of her first book The Digits, is a Melbourne based illustrator. Gus Gordon, also a country boy, illustrated his first book in 1996 and has written or illustrated over 70 books. Finally, Wayne Harris has 30 books to his name with his book DragonQuest shortlisted for Picture Book Of The Year. With the theme “A Picture Tells A Thousand Words” this year, the festival will once again interest all.

PETER AGAIN
Congratulations to Peter Cobcroft who has gained selection in the U18 NSW hockey team. This is a marvellous feat considering he is only 16 years of age.

CIS SWIMMING
Following our teams competition at Homebush last week, we congratulate the following for their selection to compete at CIS. Isabella Siegert for 50m Butterfly and 100 Free, Thomas Geyer in 50m Breaststroke, Alanna Bankovic in 50m Breaststroke, Kirrily Edwards in the 100m Free and Lucy Hobson in the 50m Free.

FAST FACT
The oldest public school in the United States is Boston’s Latin School, which was founded on April 23, 1635. Five of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence were Latin School graduates, including Benjamin Franklin, John Hancock, Robert Treat Paine, Samuel Adams and William Hopper.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Rev. Tony Card

“I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.” (John 11:25, NRSV)

Lazarus was dead. Jesus knew that His good friend was sick, but instead of going to visit Lazarus, Jesus waited two more days. After Lazarus died, Jesus began a journey to Bethany, Lazarus’ home, “to wake him up.” Lazarus’ sister Martha went out to meet Jesus, demonstrating her faith in His power to heal, “If you had been here my brother would not have died.” Jesus assured her that her brother would rise again. Martha responds again in faith, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” At this point, Jesus makes His claim that we read above. In making this claim He was claiming to be the source of both. There is no resurrection and no eternal life apart from Christ. Jesus was also making a statement concerning His divine nature. He does more than give life; He is life, and death has no ultimate power over Him. Jesus confers this spiritual life on those who believe in Him, so that they share His triumph over death.

He proves his claim by raising Lazarus, calling out, ‘Lazarus, come forth!’ The dead man walks out after being dead for four days. Truly, with Christ, death is but sleep. It is something from which He will wake us. Death has no power over the One who is life itself, and He passes this on to us. We live because He lives. Jesus’ words and actions provide a godly perspective on three important spiritual matters. Resurrection is not an event; it is a Person. Eternal life is not an abstract idea; it is a personal relationship with Jesus. Victory over death is not a future expectation; it is a present reality. Our eternal life has already begun. With all the blessings of Christ, Rev. Tony Card.

Thought for the week: ‘Do you believe this?’ Martha said to him, ‘Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.’ (John 11:27, NRSV)

Change to Whole School Easter Chapel.
Please be advised that the Whole School Easter Chapel has been moved to Friday 11th April, beginning at 10.20am. This will also conclude our collection for the Mark & Demanuel families as we assist them in their recovery from house fires in January.

Asthma Management Plans
Students with Asthma or Anaphylaxis need to return the management plans that were sent home recently to the clinic ASAP. If parents have been advised by the family doctor that an asthma action plan is not necessary could parents please email the clinic on sister@saints.nsw.edu.au to advise.

Just a REMINDER about the Cadbury Chocolate Fundraiser.
All proceeds go to refurbishing the School Clinic.
Each box contains 24 blocks at $2.50 per block/$60 per box.
A Permission Slip needs to be signed by a parent along with the money if it is being collected by a student.
Students or parents can collect the chocolate boxes from the Uniform Shop Monday or Friday only.

Kids, Colour and Cows

The 2014 Twilight Cattle Parade was a sea of “Kids, Colour and Cows” on Tuesday night, 1st April, at the All Saints’ College school farm.

With over 250 people in attendance and over 80 registered paraders, the night represented a fun-filled conclusion to the term-long cattle breaking programme at the school. With participation from both the Junior School and Senior School, it was truly a whole school function. The night included six events involving leading cattle into the show ring as well as a fancy dress parade. Many students from the school have been working on their cattle since the start of term and will no doubt be sad to see them leave our grounds for greener pastures.

A big congratulation goes out the Year 11 Agriculture class who planned and executed the night with professional precision. There were also a host of volunteers who helped judge, cook and help students prepare the cows. A special thanks to Father Paul Woodhart and Mrs Margaret Gaal, who are old friends of the school farm, who assisted with judging the event. Prizes were made available by a host of generous folks from around town including Town and Country Rural Supplies, Perthville Rural Supplies, Landmark Bathurst, Fish and Sons Rural Supplies and Saddle World Bathurst. Mr Gary Hamer and his family have also been generous in facilitating the supply of hay through the past two months. We thank you all very much for your support.

Sights are now set on participating in the Bathurst Show in the first weekend of May. About 30 Senior School students will prepare and display a swag of steers, heifers and cows in the local event. Some students will also be performing official stewarding duties following their successful participation in the local stewarding training programme.

The preparation of these animals and paraders has been going on since the start of the term and will continue through the holidays. It is a big commitment, but there is plenty to learn and gain through being involved. Anyone interested in being a part of the team or participating in the future is encouraged to contact the school Agriculture Department through Reception. Mark Whitfeld
