CRICKET
On Wednesday, 12 February 2014 the Wiburd Shield cricket team hosted Samuel Johnson Anglican School from Oakhurst. Skipper David Cant won the toss and elected to bat on another Simon Morris special. After losing early wickets, All Saints’ reached 8/157 from their 40 overs. The innings was led superbly by Cambell Morris (72) and Claude Bietz (23no). In reply, Samuel Johnson were bowled out for 39. The signs were ominous for them when Tom Card got a wicket from the first ball of the innings. David Cant bowled brilliantly for 4/3 off 4 overs, with Will Siegert taking 2/1 off 4 to lead the team to victory. The whole side bowled and fielded to a high standard and look forward to a road trip to Sydney for their semi-final.

Jesus said, “Let your word be ‘Yes, Yes’ or ‘No, No’” (Matthew 5:37, NRSV)

Jesus continues his teaching on the mount. He has given us the beatitudes ... the attitudes that we should have if we are to be his followers. In the Gospel reading set down for this week, Matthew 5:21-37, Jesus covers some controversial territory as he gives instructions on dealing with anger, adultery, divorce and oaths. The key to understanding these teachings is in the final verse quoted above. Jesus is telling us that if we are to truly follow him then we need to be fair dinkum in what we do.

Our actions are to reflect our words. There is no “Do as I say, not as I do” in the Christian life. If anything it is the reverse...our actions should speak for us, regardless of what we say. I recall one of my mentors quoting an old American preacher, “Preach the gospel at all times ... if necessary, use words.”

So whether we are dealing with anger, or the temptation or after effects of adultery or divorce, or if we are going to make a promise, our actions will tell people what we really think. If we talk about doing the right thing then we should do it. If we make a promise then we must keep it. If we claim to be Christian then we must ensure that we live the life that we have been called to.

This can be a challenge and a struggle for us. I know in the early years of my Christian walk that I struggled with anger, but I found that as I came into a deeper relationship with Jesus that my anger started to reduce. I still get angry but not in the way that I used to. We can all find strength in Jesus if we spend time with him.

With all the blessings of Christ,

Rev. Tony Card.

Thought for the week: “He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful» (1 Corinthians 3:8-9 NRSV)

Parents of P-plate & Learner drivers

P-plate drivers are not entitled to drive a vehicle on the school grounds until after signed approval from the Head of College.
