WIBURD SHEILD

Yesterday our U15s/Year 9 cricket team travelled to William Clarke to play the next round of the Wiburd Shield. At the end of our innings we were 8 for 108 and we were able to bowl out the opposition for 90. Mr Goddard tells me that because the grass was so long, 108 would equate to nearly 150 on a closer cropped outfield. Particular congratulations to top scorer Ben Parsons (29) and he also took four wickets, at one stage 3 for 0 after four overs. David Cant also snared three wickets. On other cricketing news, our Opens team will be playing their grand final this Saturday against St Pius on Watson Oval. Best wishes to them—and by the way Australia won the series in South Africa.

SPECIAL PROVISONS

A reminder if you are a parent of a Year 12 students or a student, please note that applications for Special Provisions (now termed Disability Provisions) for Higher School Certificate close at the end of the term. Depending on circumstances, the paper work can be complex so please don’t wait to the last moment.

FAST FACT

I hope students take note following the news that a former Orange high school student has been ordered to pay $105,000 to a teacher for defamatory remarks about her on Social media. Students must realise the consequences of their actions when commenting on such things on Facebook and Twitter.

Motivational Media

Next Thursday, 13 March 2014 Motivational Media will be visiting our school with their presentation IMPACT – Leaving your mark on the world. This video and musical montage is part of our pastoral care programme; this presentation contains powerful images and messages about how we can live a more deliberate life, making conscious decisions about what actions to take in preparing ourselves to take our place in shaping the type of community we want to be part of. Letters about this presentation have been sent home and notes about this in shaping the type of community we want to be part of. Letters about this presentation have been sent home and will also be found on "Skoolbag" our new school App. If you haven’t already downloaded the App, please do so to receive lots of school information. TEAGAN SHINES AT CAMPDRAFT NATIONALS
Year 9 student Teagan Miller travelled to Tamworth in January to compete at the ABCRA National Campdraft Finals at the state of the art Equestrian & Livestock Centre.
Elite competitors from NSW and Queensland have to qualify for the season final where the top 25 juvenile riders were up against some of Australia’s best stock.
Teagan went into the competition ranked eighth and finished equal third in her second round, and equal third and fourth in her fourth round, coming away with ribbons and prize money and an overall sixth place.
What a fantastic achievement. Well done Teagan!!

FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Rev. Tony Card

“Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.” (Psalm 51:1-2, NRSV.)

On Wednesday the whole College came together to observe Ash Wednesday. In order to help our College Community understand what Ash Wednesday and Lent are all about, I have reproduced the text of my message to students and staff.

Today is Ash Wednesday, which marks the beginning of the season of Lent. Ash Wednesday is celebrated in the principal holy day for our Church and is observed by Catholics, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Methodists, and Anglicans among others. Ash Wednesday falls on the seventh Wednesday before Easter and begins a season of fasting and repentance in preparation for the Easter celebration. Today I will talk about the origins of Lent and Ash Wednesday and why we perform the actions of Lent; to repent, fast, give, and pray.

The word Lent comes from the Anglo-Saxon words lencetan, meaning “Spring,” and lenctentid, which literally means “Springtide”. Lententid was also the word for “March,” the month in which the majority of Lent falls.

Since the earliest times of the Church, there is evidence of some kind of Lenten preparation for Easter. St. Irenaeus (who died in 203) wrote to Pope St. Victor I, that the Christian Church in the East and the West. Irenaeus commenting on the celebration of Easter, said: “We read in the books of Daniel. In the New Testament, Jesus mentions the practice in Matthew 11: “Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.”

So as part of our Ash Wednesday observance we begin with repentance. Repentance is saying sorry to God for the things we have done wrong and promising to try to do not do them again. Psalm 51 that Alannah read to us reminds us that when we do the wrong thing it is our friendship with God that we damage the most.

We put ashes on our foreheads to show God that we are truly sorry; we turn away from our sins and turn back to him. Soon you will be invited to come forward to have ashes out on your forehead. We will apply ashes in the shape of the cross on your forehead, while speaking the words, “For dust you are and to dust you shall return.” These are the words that God spoke to Adam and Eve after they ate the forbidden fruit and fell into sin. They remind us that the fruit of our sin is death and we need to repent and get right with God before it is too late. The cross reminds us of the good news that through Jesus Christ crucified there is forgiveness for all sins, all guilt, and all punishment.

We begin Ash Wednesday by saying sorry to God for the things we have done wrong but it doesn’t end there. As part of our practice for Lent we fast, we give, and we pray.

Fasting means we give something up, usually food. By fasting we remind ourselves of the fast that Jesus endured in the desert. Fasting is a way that we can make ourselves rely more on God and not on ourselves for the things that we need.

But what do we do to observe the fast? Here are three examples. First, on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, have only one full meal and some smaller snacks to keep up your strength and don’t eat meat. Second, on the Fridays of Lent don’t eat meat. Third, you may want to give up something for Lent as a sacrifice; it could be your favourite food or drink, your favourite TV show, or your favourite activity. Whatever it is it should represent a sacrifice to you but it is not to be something that you make a big thing of. In our Gospel reading that Gus read we were reminded by Jesus that when we fast we should not look like we are in pain but should look like we normally do.

We are also called to give to others. We may give our money or our time to help other people. By doing this we remind ourselves again of what Jesus gave for us. Jesus constantly calls us to remember our responsibility to give to others and not to hoard things for ourselves. Today we are collecting money for the Mark & Demanuel families who lost their homes in house fires in January. You may want to give money to other worthy causes like Relay for Life or Anglicare.

We should remember though that saying sorry to God, receiving the ashes, fasting, giving, and praying, are all meaningless, even hypocritical, unless we really mean it and try to change our behaviour. This is made clear in Isaiah when God says, Do you think the Lord wants you to give up eating and to act as humble as a bent-over bush? Or to dress in sackcloth and sit in ashes? Is this really what he wants on a day of worship? I’ll tell you what it really means to worship the Lord. Remove the chains of prisoners who are chained unjustly. Free those who are abused! Share your food with everyone who is hungry; share your home with the poor and homeless. Give clothes to those in need; don’t turn away your relatives. May you come closer to God as you observe this Lent.

With all the blessings of Christ,
Rev. Tony Card

Thought for the week: “O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise. For you have no delight in sacrifice; if I were to give a burnt-offering, you would not be pleased. The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.” (Psalm 51:15-17, NRSV)
May 11: ASC Showjumping Day

Looking for something different to do with Mum this Mother’s Day?
Look no further…. The ASC Showjumping Day is on again this Mother’s Day, Sunday the 11th May on Edgell Oval.

Showjumping Day is the major fundraiser for the Equestrian Team and we are currently raising funds to improve our facilities and equipment.

Come along and enjoy a fantastic day of Showjumping and support your All Saints’ Equestrians while enjoying a meal or coffee from our Gourmet Canteen!!

Hope to see you there.

The cricket may have been a wash out but the glorious rain certainly didn’t deter the equestrian team from two days of solid Showjumping and Dressage training last weekend.

Equestrian NSW elite level coaches, Dave Cameron (Showjumping) and 3* Event Rider Tallarah Barwick (Dressage) travelled from the Hawkesbury area to work with the girls as part of the team’s ongoing commitment to training and development.

Whilst the conditions on Saturday tested horse and rider, Sunday saw brighter skies and an opportunity to consolidate Saturday’s efforts with all 20 riders coming away with renewed skills and an eagerness for the upcoming competition season.

Members of the team will contest the Evans Crown Horse Sports Day at Lithgow next Monday, then travel to ‘Stannies’ in two weeks time to compete in the first Interschool Showjumping event of the year. This will be followed up a week later with the SCOTS School Highland Gathering Showjumping competition on the 23rd March and of course, our very own Showjumping Day on Sunday the 11th of May.

These local competitions are a fantastic preparation for the girls as they look towards the two big events of the year, the North West Equestrian Expo and the State Interschool Championships which will be held in June.

A huge thank you to Sarah Wrigley for organising and co-ordinating last weekend’s clinic which was enjoyed by all 18 students, one extremely talented parent and one staff member!!
