SPEECH AND DRAMA
Well done to Claudia Cunningham who performed in the Gulgong Eisteddfod last week. Claudia had some fantastic results: 4 x 1st places, 3 x 2nd places, 3 x 3rd places, 2 x Highly Commended. She was awarded Highly Commended in the 12 Yrs & Under Speech Championship and also awarded the Encouragement Trophy for 12 years.

MOCK TRIAL
On Wednesday, 28 May 2014 All Saints’ College Mock Trial team competed against James Sheahan Catholic College in the third round of competition. The team consisted of Tom Nobes and Maddison Crowe as barristers, Sophie Jones as solicitor, Rebecca Cole and Laura Van Uum as witnesses and Jeremy Innes as court officer. The case was a criminal prosecution involving the charge of larceny. We acted as the Defence in a case where Rebecca, a recent lotto winner, had been charged with shoplifting some cosmetic items from Woy Woy K-Mart store. Despite losing the legal case we won the more important skills side of the mock trial, 123-118 points.

CWA PUBLIC SPEAKING
The CWA Public Speaking was held at All Saints’ yesterday with many students from the local region attending. Congratulations to Charlie O’Neil who won his section and Sophie Chirgwin and Lucy Vance who received Highly Commended. A thank you to Mrs Margaret Gaal and her band of helpers who arranged the catering.

HICES DEBATING
HICES debating was held at All Saints’ last week for schools in our “zone”. The Year 8s and 9s had wins while Bradley Gardiner and Tom Nobes were selected as one of the top three performers in their divisions.

PARENTS: - BELT YOUR SONS’
Of course I mean this type of belt
Not this type of belt.

There are numerous students without belts in their trousers. Not only do they help pants to stay up but also assist in making sure shirts remain tucked in. Suitable black belts are available at the Uniform shop if you cannot purchase them in town.

Thought: The aim of education should be to teach us how to think, rather than what to think. James Beattie

Jesus said to them, ‘Come and have breakfast.’ (John 21:12, NRSV)
We continue looking at the post-resurrection appearances of Jesus, this week in John 21:1-14. Jesus had told the disciples to meet him in Galilee. While they waited for him, Peter decided to go fishing. Peter and the other disciples got into a boat and off they went. They spent the whole night fishing yet caught nothing.

The disciples had fished all night and caught nothing. Jesus knew they had a need; they had no food. Jesus met their need and told them where they would catch fish. The disciples had tried all night to accomplish things on their own but as soon as they had Jesus’ word they had success. We too can try to accomplish things in our own power but we will never know true success until we are doing what Jesus wants us to do. We can do all things through Christ.

After the disciples had fished all night and caught nothing, Jesus said to them, ‘Come and have breakfast.’ The disciples got into a boat and off they went. Jesus had told the disciples to meet him in Galilee. While they waited for him, Peter decided to go fishing. Peter and the other disciples got into a boat and off they went. They spent the whole night fishing yet caught nothing.

Have you ever tried to do anything apart from Jesus, in your own strength? It often turns out to be a disaster. Peter and the disciples were learning a valuable lesson. They couldn’t do anything without Jesus. Earlier in John’s gospel, when speaking about himself as the true vine, Jesus said, “apart from me you can do nothing” (John 15:5). How true that is. We need Jesus’ help and blessing upon everything we do for it to go just right. When we don’t include Jesus, or ask Him if a decision we need to make is okay then things often don’t run smoothly. The disciples learnt the hard way that without Jesus we can do nothing, however we can do all things through Christ.

After the disciples had fished all night and caught nothing Jesus knew they had a need; they had no food. Jesus met their need and told them where they would catch fish. The disciples had tried all night to accomplish things on their own but as soon as they had Jesus’ word they had success. We too can try to accomplish things in our own power but we will never know true success until we are doing what Jesus wants us to do. We can do all things through Christ.

Another interesting aspect of this story is that they didn’t do anything without Jesus. Earlier in John’s gospel, we can do nothing, however we can do all things through Christ.

The disciples learnt the hard way that without Jesus we can do nothing, however we can do all things through Christ.

All Saints’ U17 soccer team made a magnificent effort with a near win against Eglinton in the game of Saturday, 24 May 2014. Play began with a strong intercept by Liberty Smith.

Lily Wright has shown herself to be a natural goalie with two successive saves. Karla Terry proved adept in kicking in and shutting down the opposition. The team showed impressive team work. With one of her accurate kicks, Mollie Gorman returned the ball down to the home side, assisted by constant chasing and pressure by Melissa Whitfeld and fast footwork by Lauren Selmes. Teagan Miller, assisted by Peta Morris kept up the pressure, stealing the ball and making a near goal.

As the action returned to the Saints’ side, Lily Wright made another impressive save. Good defensive work was done with kick outs by Liberty and Lauren. It was the turn of Clare Foster to impress as a forward with the first ASC goal. As the first half approached, Saints’ defence kept the ball away from the goal. However, when repeated opposition attacks were made, Lily Wright made one of the best performances of the game, with three successive saves.

Teagan came into play at this stage with a kick up to the Saints’ end and a near-goal. As play returned to the Saints’ end, Lily Fischer-Brown made a superlative chase, stop and kick back up the field. Lauren brought down to the opposition goal where the action stayed. The first half finished with a magnificent goal by Rebecca Vann, an U15 team player, playing especially with the senior team.

The second half began with Clare, now in wing, making an amazing run down from the home side, right down to the opposition goal, with skilful footwork, following this up with a strong attempt to put the ball out. Peta, an excellent team member, pressured the ball out. Pressure by Jacque and Liberty helped set Lauren up for a near goal. The third All Saints’ goal was made by Teagan. As play moved up and down the field, Saints’ and Eglinton were equal. As Eglinton took their third goal, Jacque gave her all with impressive pressure and footwork. As the game finished, with a win by one point to Eglinton, Lily polished off her performance with yet another impressive save.
