REMEMBRANCE DAY

The prefects did a superb job organising our Remembrance Day Service on Tuesday. With a focus on the 100 Year anniversary and a reflection on the school trip to some of the western front theatre of war areas, it was a moving and fitting ceremony.

EXAMINATION FEEDBACK

Years 9 and 10 will be starting to get their examinations back from their teachers. This is an important process and it is vital for students to learn where they have made mistakes so that they will not be repeated in the future. The Yearly examinations do not solely make up the final mark on Semester 2 reports, as a combination of tasks, as per the assessment booklet, are used.

GRAHAM HYMAN

A reminder again that on Thursday, 20th November, as part of our All Saints’ presents series, Year 10 will be having a full day seminar presented by Graham Hyman. Graham runs Youth Specialties Australia who provides innovative training covering such issues as confidence, resilience, and motivation. The days program will focus on Surviving Years 11 and 12 (How to use the seniors years as a platform for the life you want to have) and Surviving Life (Identifying the particular dangers of late adolescence and encouraging wise choices). Graham will also be presenting an evening for all Parents on Wednesday, 19th November. This is not the first time Graham has spoken to parents and he is entertaining and informative. More information about this night will be sent out to parents soon. Please reserve the date.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN

Rev. Tony Card

‘He had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him.’ (Isaiah 53:2, NRSV)

The prophet Isaiah is the most revered among all of the prophets of Judaism and Christianity. One of the reasons for this is that he spoke with great clarity of the promised Messiah; the one who would restore the relationship between God and his people. In chapter 53 of Isaiah we find a detailed and illuminating description of the Messiah that is fulfilled in Jesus. Isaiah speaks of the Messiah’s oppression and affliction. The gospel accounts of Jesus show an increasing level of attack from the religious leaders as he continued his teaching. Isaiah tells us that he remained silent as his death was imminent. In the recount of Jesus’ trial and death we find him strangely silent - not going on the attack or launching into a drawn out defence, but trusting in the Father and submitting to his fate. Isaiah even describes the perversion of justice that would take the Messiah away. Modern day experts in ancient Jewish law describe a litany of reasons as to why Jesus’ trial and sentence went against Jewish law and custom.

When we read Isaiah (and the other prophets) we build up a clear picture of the Messiah. We have the benefit of hindsight in that we can read not only of the prophecies about him, but also the way in which these were fulfilled in Jesus. Many first century people were somehow blind to the truth about him. Let us not suffer the same way.

With every blessing, Rev. Tony Card

ORIENTATION DAY 2015

In the opinion of this writer, one of the most successful attributes of All Saints’ College is the care taken with the introduction of new students and their families to the college community. A key element of this programme, the annual Orientation Day held last Friday for incoming 2015 students proved to be one of the best yet. On a warm spring day approximately 80 students from Kindergarten to Year 11 were in attendance to experience a ‘fact and fun’ day at the College and to have the opportunity to meet other new students from their 2015 Year groups.

Following a welcome from Dr Miller and the All Saints’ Prefect Body, the Senior School students took part in a number of demonstration classes which included Agriculture, Visual Arts, Drama and Music. The incoming Year 7 students then joined in a treasure hunt exploring the College grounds followed by the traditional round of 25-a-side dodge ball.

The official part of the day’s events concluded with a Thanksgiving Chapel Service which was celebrated by Chaplain, The Reverend Tony Card. In the late afternoon the Year 7, 2015 families met for an informal, twilight function in the Festival grounds following by the traditional round of 25-a-side dodge ball.

PREFECT BODY 2015.

Prefect Body 2015 and to the many staff and parents who helped with the complex organisation of this very happy day.

WELCOME

All Saints’ College welcomes new arrivals Nicholas Wood (Kindergarten) and Henry Palmer (Year 5) and their families to our community. Michael Hissey
To be remembered at All Saints’ College, on the Centenary of Anzac Day, 2015.

Around Australia, there are many activities underway to mark the Centenary of ANZAC. Examples are with two Councils nearest this writer’s home - Woollahra and Waverly - as well as across Sydney Harbour in Mosman. All of these have groups working at collecting the history of their citizens who served during the conflict.

All three of the above can count among their lists, All Saints’ College Diggers. This collection of dossiers for All Saints’ had its beginning in 2009 and will culminate with publication for ANZAC Day 2015.

The History of All Saints’ College, Bathurst” (1963) lists 34 ex All Saints’ College members who “lost their lives on service.” Added to their names were the units enrolled in. However, on inspection, no date of death, or their units, was presented for two men; John Martin and A.W (or, F.W.?) Smith. To this list, two more killed were since identified - Mervyn Day and Earlston Korff. Other names have also been added to those who returned. Many other corrections have been made to the original lists, be they in the School History or on the Honour Boards.

With Internet resources (e.g. Trove,) now available, it could be surmised that it might be easy to research and fill in missing details. As a result, published in VIM (2009) was my resulting article on John Martin. Sadly, these years later, with hundreds of “Smiths” to troll through, this Smith has not been further indentified. This is also the case with Bosworth, W.W. Cornish, A. Chauncey (Chauncy?), Captain.Malcolm Kirwan, Captain F. Stokes, and H.L.Maynard. Further, with the paucity of overseas records, not much is available on the 20 or so who served with British, Canadian, Chinese, French and West African units.

Continuing this interest, I proceeded to “cut and paste” into “scrapbook” dossiers any additional snippets I encountered on all of our servicemen. In this, I received encouragement from staff and friends of All Saints’ College to keep extending this collection. A close collaboration was developed with Mr Wayne Feebrey (All Saints’ College teacher) who envisaged that some of the scrapbook material had potential as a teaching resource on WWI for current and future All Saints’ students. Thus to some degree the collection has an orientation to this academic purpose.

As I started researching the 34, the significant connection with Anzac was noted - eight of our fallen were lost at Gallipoli, and of the Anzac survivors, seven were later lost elsewhere.

A much heavier task was begun, in answering “who else fought at Anzac?” The list numbered about 50, so, if one was to prepare dossiers, some 85 were needed! But, as they say, “that’s not all.” There were some additional 135 who also gave service. Why not, open dossiers on all our men? This evolved into setting a target to release all available scrapbooks for next ANZAC Day. The dossiers provide much more than a stark list of names. Underpinning each file, are selections from Personal Service Records from National Archives and newspaper cuttings. Casualty and Red Cross Reports are often, sad, frank and confronting. Added are photos as found, data from their time at All Saints’ College, university, occupations, family (“hatch, match and despatch” records), as well as copies of original documents (e.g. diaries).

A conclusion is, what a diversified, interesting, frightening, and sometimes outstanding record our men achieved and experienced. As such it is not presented as well-written prose. It is in crude form. The reader often sees in the originals, the unadorned and sometime shocking facts - such as the original report of the wounded.

* Scott shooting himself to avoid being taken prisoner by the Germans; or
* Sweetland, lasting a few days from the Landing; evacuated (“nervous breakdown”) and being sent home under a cloud “.....never be able to exercise the necessary control of men in the field.”; or
* another being court–marshalled for shortcomings at Fort Scratchly (Newcastle) at the beginning of the War, later to commit suicide; or
* another to shoot himself in Burwood Park, soon after the war due to “War service.”; or
* Sands’ Secret Service mission for the Prime Minister to the Far East in 1917 to investigate Japanese future intentions in the region - and many, many more.

A couple of years ago, VIM published an article on Clive Thompson. At the time there were descendants of his at All Saints’ College. Are there any readers with details of any of our men they would like to share? Contact: Tony Cable - tonystandco@hotmail.com

Over the summer break, UNE will be hosting the ConocoPhillips Science Experience. This three day ‘camp’ is for current Year 9 and 10 students and designed to provide students who have an interest in science with an opportunity to engage in a wide range of hands-on science activities under the guidance of Scientists who love their work.

It is being held from the 13th through to the 15th of January 2015, here on campus. Further information and registration application is available at www.scienceexperience.com.au.

Sponsorship: The event is sponsored by Rotary International. They will assist with covering the registration costs if a student approaches their local rotary club and applies for sponsorship to attend the event.

Accommodation: Students are welcome to stay on campus for the two nights during the event, for a charge of $80. This will include all their meals and social activities during that time.

Description of Activities: Science Experience comprises a number of hands-on lab based activities as well as a few informative and entertaining talks and demonstrations. The activities include robotics, where students program remote controlled vehicles, chemistry, DNA extraction, exploring the physics of sound and music, and an opportunity to culture some of the microbugs found on and in all of us. Illustrated talks on DNA, and a criminologist explaining how DNA is used and misused in crime detection. There will be a demonstration of a computerised tomography (CT) scanner in operation scanning a live sheep. Students will also have the opportunity to observe and participate in an experiment in progress measuring methane emissions from cattle. The highlight of the Experience is always the “Extreme Chemistry” show in which all five senses are intensely bombarded! On one of the evenings students visit the UNE sports complex and test their skills on the climbing walls and play pool sports. On the second evening they visit the famous Dangar’s Falls, east of Armidale. Students at UNE also have the opportunity to experience life in a university residential college.
