HEAD OF SENIOR SCHOOL

BENEFACTORS’ SERVICE & PREFECTS’ INDUCTION

The Benefactors’ Service & Prefects’ Induction - last day of Year 12 is on Thursday, 18 September 2014. The service commences at the start of the day in the Cathedral and the farewell to Year 12 is a touching part of the program. This gives the whole school a chance to formally farewell the Class of 2014. Parents are encouraged to attend. The Valedictory Dinner will take place that night and bookings will be closing shortly. It is a very big day.

STEPPING THROUGH THE HSC

The Year 11 Preliminary examinations have nearly concluded and these students will be commencing the HSC course at the start of next term. Consequently we will be holding an information evening entitled “Stepping Through the HSC” on Tuesday, 7 October 2014 at 7:30pm in the Library. Year 11 students and parents are encouraged to attend to find out about Assessment Tasks, the Trial HSC, HSC Exams, Universities and the ATAR, Planning, Priorities and Expectations.

SUMMER UNIFORM

A reminder that students are to wear summer uniform when they return next term and I notice that many shoes are looking tired and need replacing. I would also like to mention that “Vans” are not part of the uniform - especially for safety in Science Labs and DT and that they are “creeping – in”. Please purchase proper shoes.

FAST FACT

This is the last Revelations for this term and I would like to wish Year 12 all the best for when they return to the HSC next term and for all families to have a restful and enjoyable break.

Thought:- Go back a little to leap further. John Clarke

Uniform Shop will be closed next Thursday, 18th September due to the Valedictory Dinner and remind all parents that Term 4 is summer uniform.

“I say to the Lord, ‘You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you.’” (Psalm 16:2, NRSV)

Next week we farewell our Year 12 students as they come to the end of their secondary school life. As we gather at the Cathedral we will be reading from Psalm 16 and from Romans 8:28-39. Both of these readings have been chosen to give encouragement to our departing students. They contain lessons for them and for all of us.

The first lesson is that none of us can truly fulfil our potential without God in our life. The Psalmist recognised this and, speaking from experience, I can wholeheartedly agree. When I consider how my life looked before and after coming to faith I see a life in two distinct parts. The first part was a constant struggle with little reward. The second, whilst not without struggle, has been far more rewarding. I firmly believe that the success of my business before I was ordained was due entirely to God’s blessing and my commitment to Jesus, which was lived out in the way I allocated my money, my gifts and my time to serve God’s people first.

The second lesson is that nothing will keep us apart from God if we want to be with him. As I said, since becoming a Christian my life has not been without struggles and challenges but these have given me opportunities to draw nearer to God. By doing so I have found the peace that comes from realising that He has my back and will support me through whatever challenge I face.

I pray that our students recognise, understand and accept these truths and that they will give themselves wholeheartedly to God as they leave this place and take their place in the world. I am confident that many will do this.

With every blessing,
Rev. Tony Card

Thought for the week: ‘For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.’ (Romans 8:38-39, NRSV)
