Congratulations to the swimmers who participated in the WAS Carnival on Friday, 27 February 2015. Lauren Lyons was particularly outstanding breaking numerous records. Coming 1st in the 50m Freestyle, 50m Backstroke, 50m Breaststroke, 50m Butterfly, 100m Freestyle and being part of a very strong junior relay team with Kirrily Edwards, Grace Schumacher, and Lucy Corbett-Jones. Alannah Bankovic came 1st in each of her races and also broke the 17yrs 50m Freestyle record. Sound results also came from Isabella Siegert, Thomas Geyer and Christopher Brennan. Also of mention are race winners Monica Webster and Jarrod Colwell in their 100m Freestyle events, Marshall Fox in his 50m Breaststroke and Isabella Marshall in her 50m Freestyle. As a result of all the hard work, cheering, enthusiasm and support, All Saints’ came second in each category and walked (swam) away with a shield we have never won before – the Girls’ Percentage Shield.

MORE WAS

WAS Hockey trials were held last Monday and the following students were selected for the Opens Hockey teams:- Lucy Vance, Maddison Crowe, Erin Cobcroft, Grace Schumacher and Darcie Campbell. Because of their age, Erin, Grace and Darcie were also selected in the 16s together with Lucy and Rachel Corbett-Jones. Congratulations girls.

MAYORESS

At a meeting of the Bathurst Regional Youth Council this week Laura Van Uum was elected as the Mayoress of the Youth Council. This is a great achievement and I am sure Laura will do an outstanding job in this position.

EVANS CROWN

Last night I attended the NSW Equestrian Awards in Sydney for the 2014 year. Once again we gained Reserve Champion School. Our aim is to go one better this year. A strong showing at Coonabarabran and SIAC will be needed for this to occur. A great start was our attendance at the Evans Crown last Monday. I am sure there will be more details to follow but suffice to say our team won the Overall School Championship point score on the day. Thank you to Mr Whitfield for his organisation on the day.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN

Reverend Tony Card

And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. (John 3:14-15, NRSV)

In order to get the full benefit of this Sunday’s gospel reading (John 3:14-21) we need to read Numbers 21:1-9. Here we find the Israelites journeying through the desert on their exodus from Egypt to the Promised Land. What should have been a journey of under a month took 40 years as the people constantly rebelled and complained against God. Their sin had brought judgement in the form of poisonous snakes. The Israelites were firm in their view that their sin was the cause of problems and dangers. Realising that they needed to come back to God the Israelites asked Moses to pray for them. Moses was instructed by God to make a bronze serpent and hang it from a pole. When someone was bitten by a snake they looked at the hanging serpent and lived.

This is rich in symbolism that helps to explain what was going on in the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus. We recall that it was the serpent that brought sin into the world, tempting Adam and Eve to rebel against God and eat the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. The serpent that Moses made was dead, symbolising the death of sin. Moses had it raised on a pole so that all who looked at this death would not die from their sin but live. When we come to the cross we see this action repeating but in a more lasting way. Jesus was nailed to the cross to take the punishment for the sins of the world. By looking upon his death and seeing it for what it is believers see the death of their sin. But it doesn’t end there. The resurrection of Jesus shows his victory over death. Death no longer has the last word. Sin and death have been conquered by Jesus and he passes the benefits of his action onto us. Jesus confirms this in his own words, “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.” (John 3:16).

May we all accept what he has done for us. With every blessing,

Rev. Tony Card.

Gala goal in reach

An amazing turnout for the netball fundraiser by students, teachers, parents and friends has brought our fundraising efforts within reach of our goal. The afternoon saw teams represent in colour, artistic print and dress code akin to that of a theatre performance. It was All Saints’ spirit on show and it made for a great afternoon of participation. Thank you to all the parents and friends who helped make the event a great success. More pictures can be found on the school website.

SCHOLARSHIPS 2016

It has as usual been a very busy few weeks in the office of the Registrar. The annual ACER scholarship examinations were held on Saturday 28 February and a large number of students sat for the various levels of scholarships available to both Junior and Senior School. Guided tours of the College and interviews of interested families have continued on a daily basis and last weekend was spent at the annual Independent Schools’ Expo held in the gothic magnificence of the McLauren Hall at Sydney University. With the charming sounds of the University carillon bells echoing across the quadrangle in the background, interested families stopped by for a chat and information.
