Welcome Back
Welcome to the 2012 school year - especially our new students and their families. We are pleased to have you as part of our community. We believe that one thing that sets us apart is our friendliness. As I stressed on Orientation Day, when in doubt, please ask someone I would like to welcome back Mrs Dundon who was on Long Service last term and Mrs LP who was on a study tour in the "wilds" of Canada. Mr Thornton has not left us just yet and an announcement about his replacement in DT will occur shortly as with the new Senior School Secretary and Registrar.

School Photos
Photos will be held in week 3 – Friday, 17th February. We ask that students wear “summer uniform” rather than the traditional “winter uniform” that has occurred in the past.

COMMENCEMENT DAY SERVICE
The Commencement Day Service will be held Tuesday, February 7th here at school. Parents are most welcome. The Service should start at 9:00 am near the Chapel. Considering all the rain we have had lately - if it is inclement, our alternative is Thursday 9th.

HEAD OF COLLEGE FUNCTION
Dr Miller will be holding a function at his House on Friday, 10th February for staff and new parents to the school. Hopefully you have already received your invitation; we would appreciate a prompt RSVP.

Parents and Friends
The P&F will be holding their first meeting for the year on Tuesday, 7th February at 5:45pm in Bean House. New Parents are more than welcome. They will also be holding a function at Abercrombie House on Saturday 11th starting at 6pm. It should be a great night.

FAST FACT
According to Australian researchers, schools are the best place to start fighting childhood obesity. Researchers conducted a meta-analysis of interventions from previous studies and concluded that school-based programs were key in getting kids to healthy weights, with little evidence that these programme would have a negative effect on their self-images. The strongest effect on sizes were in the 0–5 age group, indicating that the earlier the programs are implemented, the greater the impact.

We are doing some good things regarding this issue here at ASC.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Fr Paul Woodhart
I am pleased to be back and busy. In Christian Studies this year I have Mrs Gemma Clipsham teaching Years 9 and 10, while I take Years 7 and 8. It is great to have so many new boarders and I would like to have them to the Chaplain’s house.

So this Sunday after the 6.30pm Chapel I have invited the new Watson men back for Chaplain’s supper.

Years 5 & 8 – Grandparents’ & Special Friends’ Day Reminder
Grandparents’ & Special Friends’ Day is only three weeks away. If you have not already done so, please advise Michele Thornton, Executive Assistant, aps who you would like invited to share this day with your child. You can do this by either returning the response slip mailed to you in January or emailing m.thornton@ saints.nsw.edu.au. If you don’t have anyone to invite this is perfectly fine – your child will still be included in all the activities on the day – but please let Michele know so that she can mark you off her list.

Well this is a day of mixed emotions for me! This will be my last column for VIM and Revs and this is my last week in my role as Registrar at All Saints’ College. During the 27 months I have been here I have met some truly wonderful families and students – and have greatly enjoyed this experience.

I have always considered it an honour and a privilege to be trusted with listening to the hopes and dreams parents have for their children. Thank you for this wonderful experience. I sincerely wish you well.

I cannot say goodbye without acknowledging the outstanding work that is done here in educating our young people. Thank you! I have always considered it an honour and a privilege to be trusted with listening to the hopes and dreams parents have for their children. Thank you for this wonderful experience. I sincerely wish you well.

A reminder that we are almost at the deadline (Monday 6 February) to register for scholarships for 2013. Scholarships are available for Years 5, 7, 9, 10 and 11 so don’t miss out on this opportunity. Our website has all the details.

At today’s count, 107 new students (Kinder to Year 11) will be joining us this year – and 49 new Transition students are enrolled (with quite a few more still on our radar). We have the highest numbers for Year 7 since 2003, and we will have two Kindergarten classes in 2012. Just over 20 Senior School students will be joining us in boarding. It has been a mammoth task for this office and I must express a heartfelt thank you to Paula Elbourne for her outstanding support and hard work throughout the year.

Mrs Roslyn Cox

Last weekend, the Drama camp was held at All Saints’, where rehearsals continued for the up-coming production of The Chapel Perilous, written by Dorothy Hewett and directed by Zoë McGirr, to be performed in the newly-refurbished Kemmis Building at All Saints’ College in a couple of weeks.

The Chapel Perilous is an Australian classic, first performed in Perth in 1972, and is one of the Board of Studies HSC texts for 2012.

The epic play is full of lyricism, music, satire and self-parody as it traces the life of Sally Banner, played by Alanna D’Adam.

The holidays provided the Chapel Perilous production team time to get to work on the set, props and costumes. Greg Jones, who is an experienced Stage Manager, worked closely with the Director on pulling the show together.

Greg Thorton put his D&T skills to great use in his construction of the set and props, and Father Paul, who is an avid ‘Lead lighter’ also donated his time and artistic talents to designing and building the beautiful stained-glass window, which features on the poster and brings the set to life.

Zoe McGirr’s brother-in-law, Chris, a well-known Bathurst artist, has been busy transforming the set with his paintbrush, whilst Zoë was hard at work building the three large masks that feature in the set.

Michele Thornton has been doing a great job both sourcing and making the props and would like to thank all those people who donated objects towards the play.

Anna Krebs is leading a small, yet extremely talented team of sewers - Heather Cozens and Lesley Tinker, who have been designing, sourcing material and making the costumes for the production.

Also, a big thank you to Cherylene Anderson for designing the poster and Bob Poole for his work on publicity.

‘I am so grateful to all those people who have given up their time in the realisation of the first major All Saints’ Drama Production for quite some time. It really reflects the sense of community that this school is built on, and I’m proud to be part of such a talented team’, says Zoë McGirr, the All Saints’ Drama teacher and Director of the production.

Come along and show your support for All Saints’ Drama by booking your tickets today.
