QUARTER SESSIONS.

(Before Judge Curlewis.)

Mr. McKean, K.C., Senior Crown Prosecutor.

NOT GUILTY, BY DIRECTION.

Charles Kenyon Holden, 42, a clerk, was charged with false pretenses.
Mr. McKean stated that Holden had given evidence for the Crown at a police court against a man charged with false pretenses. It had been found that in his association with that man Holden had been "an entirely innocent agent."

By direction, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Holden was discharged.
