Dear Madam,

I have been reported to advise you that Private A.R. MacFarlane, admitted 1st Southern General Hospital, Birmingham, England (Edgbaston Section) 12/5/16, suffering from gunshot wound chest, severe.

His postal address will be—

No. 2400, Private A.R. MacFarlane,
3rd Battalion,
Australian Imperial Force,
Abroad.
Editor - the following article is believed to relate to our Old Boy. This is deduced from the following points ;)

Age was given as “30.” This fits his age at “20” with the above 1915 enlistment data. Also, his occupation was then given as “Station Overseer,” later described as “grazier,” ASC Register only lists one, of this name. ASC Old Boys Union members attended. He was honored as a returned man.

A number of names of Old Boys and others associated with Saints’ are highlighted. (For brevity, some names removed from the text,)
DEATH FROM FUMES

Grazier's Untimely End  A REMARKABLE CASE

Mr. Archibald Macfarlane, a well-known grazier of the Hill End district, died in "Strathmore" hospital, Bathurst, on Saturday afternoon, as the result of a tragic occurrence at his station, "Ullumulla," about 60 miles from Bathurst, on Thursday afternoon, when he was discovered lying in an unconscious condition in the motor garage. Mr. Macfarlane left the house about 4 o'clock to go to the garage. As he did not return to tea, a member of the household went to the garage to call him, and found the door shut. On the door being pushed open, Mr. Macfarlane was seen lying insensible at the back of the car, the engine of which was running. He had apparently started the engine, and had been overcome by petrol fumes from the exhaust. Efforts to restore him proved unavailing, and as he was evidently in a very serious condition, Dr. Maher, of Hill End, was summoned. Realizing that Mr. Macfarlane was in a very critical condition, Dr. Maher advised calling in another medical man, and Dr. Brooke-Moore, of Bathurst, was sent for.

Both doctors gave the patient unremitting attention until Saturday morning, when it was decided to have him removed to Bathurst. The ambulance was requisitioned, and brought the unconscious man to "Strathmore," where he was admitted at 1.30 p.m. He passed away about an half and a half later, having remained throughout his illness in a state of coma, in which he was found on Thursday afternoon.

The late Mr. Macfarlane was 30 years of age. He leaves a widow and two little daughters, who have received the most heartfelt condolences from far and wide in the sad blow which has befallen them. A sad feature of the tragic affair is that Mrs. Macfarlane and her daughters were holidaying at Manly when it occurred. They were immediately communicated with, and made a hurried departure for home.

The deceased gentleman was a nephew of the late Mr. Howard Macfarlane. The remains of the deceased were removed from Mr. Cam Reed's funeral parlor on Saturday night to All Saints' Cathedral, where they remained until the funeral yesterday afternoon. At All Saints' Cathedral the Ven. Arch-deacon Oakes conducted an impressive service, during which he touched upon the fine qualities of the deceased, and impressed upon his hearers the uncertainty of life.

The funeral then moved to the Kelso cemetery, where the interment took place. The cortège was a very large one, and included four motor cars filled with members of the Bathurst Veteran Soldiers' Association, of which deceased was a member. The Ven. Archdeacon Oakes officiated at the graveside. Bugler Collins sounded "The Last Post." A large number of wreaths were placed on the coffin, included in the number those from the following:— Mr. Charles Durack, Bathurst Veteran Soldiers' Association, Archdeacon Oakes, John McPhillamy, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gilmour and family, ; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. O'B. Ball, Mr. and, E. and G. Durack, Mother, Alice (Ada?)and Toby, Mrs. Harold McIntosh, All Saints' Old Boys' Union, Mr. and Mrs. John McPhillamy-----.
