Pre-Kindergarten 2 were so excited to come back to school this term. It was lovely to see their bright eager faces as they walked in the door. It has been a very productive start to the term with the children very keen to learn and playing cooperatively. Last week we had upside down day where everything in the classroom was turned upside down—even the clock just to confuse the parents! We also wrote our names with spaghetti and a recount about our holidays. One of our biggest thrills so far this term has been Science where we have been carrying out experiments to explore materials in our world. Stay tuned as our young budding scientists surprise you. PRE-KINDERGARTEN NEWS

Excitement in the Air
FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Rev. Tony Card

‘Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses! Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one.’ (Isaiah 44:8 NRSV)

In the last week of the holidays we heard about the disappearance of 5 year old Chayce Kofe in the surf on the Central Coast. The weekend news reported the senseless death of 17 year old Casey-lee Hull in a street racing accident at Shellharbour. The media has reported that the ongoing conflict in Syria and Iraq has resulted in an ultimatum to the Christians from Mosul; leave, pay a protection fee, or be put to the sword. We are hearing hourly updates on the growing death toll in Gaza as the conflict between Hamas and Israel intensifies. The world is still in shock following the shooting down of MH-17 over Ukraine and the loss of 298 people. Perhaps most depressing in these incidents is the high number of children who are among the victims. Lives are cut short. Promises go unfulfilled.

I don’t know about you but I feel more than a little helpless when I hear and read about these events. I can’t begin to understand the grief that the family and friends of these people are experiencing. I might be able to explain these and other events as being the result of choices made by the people involved or by others, but in doing so I would sound weak and stiff, and can bring little comfort or satisfactory explanation.

All I can do is what thousands are doing around Australia and the world right now. Turn to God. Not to find answers to the question of why these things happened, but to find the answer to the question of how do we go on. One of the uplifting aspects of these tragedies is the way in which people are turning to God in their grief. St. Mary’s Cathedral was full to overflowing on Sunday. Vigils have been held around the country to remember lives lost. Tonight’s news showed a simple but moving church service in Ukraine in the village near the crash site. We are so fortunate that we have a God who loves us and on whom we can turn to. We were reminded of this in Sunday’s reading from Isaiah quoted above.

We want to know why these bad things happen. We want answers. We want justice. We want the evil ones removed from the world. But in last Sunday’s gospel reading (Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43) Jesus reminds us that this is not our job, but his. And it will be accomplished in time. The weeds will grow among the wheat but they won’t have a place with him in eternity, when ‘the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father’ (Matthew 13:43).

I cannot give you the answers to the why questions...I can’t find them myself. But I can give you the answer to the how. How do we deal with these tragedies? We put our trust in the one who has overcome death, the one who has promised that that trust will be rewarded with a perfect eternity.

‘Let anyone with ears listen!’ (Matthew 13:43)

With every blessing, Rev. Tony Card

HOCKEY REPORTS

Minkey Hockey Report Saturday 19th July 2014

Saturday saw a fantastic morning of hockey for the Kookas and Kangas Minkey Hockey teams after a big break during the holidays. The Kookas had a brilliant game against Kelso (despite being very short on numbers). We all tried our best which saw some brilliant plays from everyone. Kelso allowed us to have a player from their team for a little while which was great as we had a go at passing the ball instead of just hitting it forward or running with it ourselves. Congratulations must go to Wilson Cooney who was our Player of the Match due to his willingness to take on board any advice that was given to him on the day. Next week we will continue to focus on playing our positions and have a go at passing the ball. Sophie Hanigan, (Coach Under 7s Kookas)

Under 13s Hockey Report

On Saturday the 19th of July, the under 13’s hockey team played St. Pats Blue. All Saints defeated St. Pats 6-1. It was a great game with some good passing among the team. Jakiya Whitfield, Ailee Blackshaw and Samantha Porter each scored 1 goal and Grace Schumacher scored 3, congratulations to those girls. We are now communicating well and working better as a team. Congratulations to everyone and special congratulations to Jakiya Whitfield who was this week’s ‘players, player’. Indi Whitfield

ASC Stingrays

The day dawned sunny but cold for the Stingrays vs Bulldogs match, but no one was complaining as at least it wasn’t snowing! Rhiannon took the toss as captain for the day and so began a very tightly matched game. Breahna, Collete and Lauren did a great job putting in some good combinations defending with Rhiannon, Phoebe, Sophie and Georgie all playing tight and fast with intercepts, and good goal shooting attempts. The team worked very cohesively, communicating well and shadowing their opponents. The Bulldogs won this match 3-1, and it was a very exciting match. Rhiannon Jarrett

ASC Prawns

On Saturday 19th of August, the Prawns braved an icy wind from the mountains to beat the Collegians Fire Angels 13 to 9. The girls all worked as a tight team intercepting and attacking the ball. Genna was amazing as GS in the first quarter. Eliza’s defence as GK kept the opposition from getting a firm grip on the leader board. Kate and Charlotte stuck like glue to their opposition and were great in defence. Megas, with lightning speed, feed the ball down the court, intercepting and finding space each quarter. Kate Mc and Lauren were the dynamic duo in their positions, Kate as GD and Lauren as GA. A special thank you to Collette for joining us. She showed us what a versatile player she is, filling in on a number of positions during the game. Till next week stay warm! Kate Dowd
