Representative Honours
Bathurst Netball Association held their Representative Netball Presentation Night on Saturday. Four of the ASC Under 12 girls have been playing representative netball this year – an excellent achievement in itself. It was wonderful to see the girls honoured on the night. Sara Reynolds, 12 years Player of the State Age Carnival; Eliza Jardine, 11 years; Lauren Lyons, 11 years Carnival Player; Kate McEwen 12 years Development Player’s Player as voted by her team mates. This not only shows that the girls are playing great netball but they are doing it with enthusiasm and wonderful sportsmanship. Congratulations.
Last Wednesday PK3 had a very exciting excursion to the fire station to learn about fire safety. Shortly after arriving at the station, the fire fighters were called out! The children got to watch the firefighters dress into their safety gear and the engine leave the station with its lights flashing. It wasn't long before the young back-up team arrived to enthusiastically conduct the fire safety session, guide the children through the fire engine and help them squirt water from a real fire hose! Our Jolly phonics sound for this week is 'b'. The children have come up with a very impressive list of words that start with the letter 'b'. We have been making and blowing bubbles as well as creating some awesome bubble prints. We have been investigating the different types of 2 dimensional lines in mathematics. The children have put their finger muscles to work to weave paper to decorate an amazing checkerboard line pattern. In News this week the children have been talking about all the things they are responsible for. The children have been keen to use the new Electronic Whiteboard in the classroom and have created some amazing pictures with Kids Pix.

Kind Regards,
Deb Porter

Imogen had fun playing the Kid Pix program on the EWB.

Look at our bubble prints!

Ralph got to dress up as a real fire fighter on his birthday!

Imogen, Adelaide, Sybilla and Lotus enjoy making bubbles by mixing vinegar with bicarb. soda.

Clever Lottie writes her name on the EWB.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Rev. Tony Card

‘The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. The Lord is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made.’ (Psalm 145:8-9 NRSV)

We continue considering what it means to be made in the image of God and to live our lives in his image and will. These verses from Psalm 145 remind us of the forgiving nature of God. God is gracious and merciful. These qualities are foundational in our relationship with him for without his grace we cannot receive his forgiveness and mercy. Jesus made it clear to us that nothing we can do is beyond the reach of God’s grace. He demonstrated this on the cross, forgiving the murderer who hung beside him when that man asked for mercy. We need to show the same grace and mercy to those who do wrong to us. This does not release them from the consequences of their wrong but our forgiveness of them will release us from the power their wrong has over us.

God is slow to anger. It takes a lot to rile him up. We only need to look at how many people in the world live rejecting him and yet he still blesses them. For many today the problem of anger is a consuming one. I can recall countless inmates at Bathurst Gaol who were incarcerated because they could not control their anger. Living in the image of God means that we don’t get angry quickly, whether it’s in the car, firing back a terse email, or snapping back at a comment we didn’t like.

No matter what happens God loves us. He may hate what we are doing but he still loves us. In our relationships we too need to focus our love on the person and not their behaviour. No matter what they do we need to love them, be slow to get angry, show mercy and be gracious towards them.

These qualities are not easy for us to maintain but they are vital if we are to live in God’s image, in full relationship with each other and with God.

With every blessing,
Rev. Tony Card

Thought for the week: ‘...but if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. ’(Matthew 6:15)

HOCKEY REPORTS

Minkey Hockey Report Saturday, 2nd August 2014

On Saturday, 2nd August, the Under 7 Kookas waited very patiently for the opposing team to arrive. In the interim we had a fun mixed game against each other. Thank you to the parents who also participated in this – you did an amazing job playing with mini hockey sticks. Eventually we had a game against a full strength Souths team. Although they had more players, we were evenly matched and had a brilliant game. Our passing is improving as we start to do it more and our free hits are finding their way out to the wing more and more. A huge congratulations must go to our Player of the Match Aston, who not only scored a fantastic goal, but also managed to keep his stick down for the entire game. Well done Aston! Sophie Hanigan, (Coach Under 7s Kookas)

Under 13s Hockey Report Saturday, 2nd August 2014

On Saturday All Saints’ College Under 13s team played St Pats White. This has traditionally been a close contest and this game was no exception. The final score was 5 all; this was a good outcome from the power their wrong has over us.

God is slow to anger. It takes a lot to rile him up. We only need to look at how many people in the world live rejecting him and yet he still blesses them. For many today the problem of anger is a consuming one. I can recall countless inmates at Bathurst Gaol who were incarcerated because they could not control their anger. Match Reports - Saturday Aug 2
ASC Seahorses
What an awesome game of netball it was on a cold and windy Saturday morning. Our Seahorse team of Charlee, Millia, Shanlei, Lottie, Zoe, Olivia, Mayann are a bunch of bounce, energetic, funny young ladies. They have been learning fast and have transitioned into different positions fairly smoothly. Although we are yet to win a game or score a goal, we believe as long as we play and put in 100% and have lots of fun, we are winners every week. We look forward to the rest of the season and watching the team grow together. Keep up the good work girls. GO Seahorses!!! Charlotte Jarvis

ASC Stingrays
On Saturday the All Saints’ Stingrays played against Scots Cubs. It was a close game but everyone played well. All Saints defeated Scots 5-3. Rhiannon, Hannah, Sophie and Collette scored the goals. The shooters worked hard in the circle to score the goals. Kate, Jorja, Georgie and Lucy made some great passes and their defence was excellent. It was a great game and everyone was persistent throughout the whole game. Sophie Porter

ASC Prawns
On Saturday the ASC Prawns played the Out Of Touch Eagles. It was a bit tough at the the start but the Prawns came back fighting with some excellent intercepts by Charlotte and Eliza. There were some great passes by Lauren , Collette and Sophie who got the ball quickly down to the goal circle where Kate McEwen and I keep the goals coming. By the end of first quarter the OOT Eagles were ahead by six goals. Then Sara came on to the court and got every rebound and quickly got it down to the goal circle where we kept getting goals. It was the fourth quarter and it was a close tie at eleven all but the ASC Prawns came out fighting and won the match 15-13. Congratulations to Charlotte for being the player of the match. Genevieve King

Match Report - Saturday July 19
ASC Seahorses
The Seahorses played a great game against the Eglinton Mermaids, even with the cold weather. Despite losing, all the girls put in a massive effort and should be really proud of themselves. Charlee, Olivia, Shanlei and Millia worked well together in attack while the defence of Zoe, Maayan, Lottie and Charlotte was excellent. The player of the match went to Charlotte. Well done Charlotte!

The Under 9 Asteroids played a very good game against the Bathurst 75 Subways. Some great goals were scored by Charlie Rendall, Oliver Roach and Noah Siede, while Henry Miller and James Burgess both played very well in goals. Player of the Week was awarded to Henry Miller for his great team work. Thank you to the Under 8s for playing for the Asteroids on Saturday.

UNDER 7 MILKY WAYS
What a game! After 5 weeks of no soccer, the boys were so keen and eager to play. And not very long into the game, Blake had 2 goals! Lachlan P, Kobe and Baxter followed with great strikes before halftime, to have the Milky Ways up 5-0. A second half double from Lachlan M, and another goal from Baxter sealed a great win for the team! Lachlan W missed out on a goal, though he had a great game! Player of the Week went to Lachlan P! Well done to him, and all of the Milky Ways!
