The excitement level was high as Pre K2 headed over to visit Healthy Harold in the Life Education Van this week. They were super clever at identifying all the healthy fruit and vegetables and enjoyed lying back and watching the twinkly lights on the roof. The children learnt a lot about keeping healthy and how important it is to keep their bodies safe. The highlight of the visit was a pat and cuddle of Healthy Harold, he is indeed a well loved Giraffe. Later this week we will start preparing for our Christmas concert. The year is flying fast.

Maggie Walsh
The souls of the dead were supposed to revisit their homes on this day and the festival acquired sinister significance with ghosts, witches, goblins, black cats, fairies and demons of all kinds said to be roaming about. It was the time to appease the supernatural powers that the pagans believed were controlling the processes of nature. In addition, Halloween was thought to be the most favourable time for divinations concerning marriage, luck, health, and death. It was the only day on which the help of the devil was invoked for such purposes.

Clearly this has no place in the Christian life. So how do we react to the inevitable knock on the door and the demand to trick or treat? Rather than being tricked into the myth that this is only harmless fun we should instead look to treat those at our door with the good news of Jesus. We can consider some of the following ideas:

- Put signs on your door like, "No Trick! God’s Treat is Jesus", “Let Jesus Fill the Hollow”
- Carve a single letter in enough pumpkins to create a small phrase like “Jesus is Lord” or use Christmas lights to make a similar message.
- As children come to your door, have appealing Christian music playing in the background.
- Purchase Christian tracts to hand out. You can get them from a Christian bookstore or order them online. Lollies can be taped to the leaflet.
- As an alternative to lollies, consider giving pencils, erasers, bookmarks, stickers and comic books that carry a Christian message.
- Hold a ‘Hallelujah party’ where the focus is on good, fun games that are designed to bring a laugh rather than a scream.

Like all things when it comes to living out our Christian faith we have a choice to make. We can either be tricked into living a life away from God or accept the treat that is Jesus Christ.

With every blessing, Rev. Tony Card
