Skoolbag
All Saints’ College now has our own Skoolbag iPhone and Android App to help us communicate more effectively with our Parent/Student community. We are asking parents/students to install our Skoolbag School App. To install it, just search for our school name “All Saints’ College Bathurst” in either the Apple App Store, or Google Play Store. Once it is on your phone you can receive alerts from the school about things like excursions being late, sport being called off etc. You need to go to Setup and select the categories you wish to receive Alerts for. There is more information on the Skoolbag website that I recommend you read.

HICES Swimming Carnival
Good luck to our Junior School swim team who will be travelling to Homebush Aquatic Centre next Tuesday 11th March to participate in the Heads of Independent Co-Educational Schools (HICES) Swimming Carnival. I expect they are going to be very competitive judging from their wonderful performances in the pool last week at the Western Associated Schools (WAS) Carnival.

Sport Commitments
I would like to remind everyone of the importance of staying committed to your chosen sport for the entire season. This means letting your coach know if you are going to be away from training or the match. Our coaches, of who many are volunteers, do a terrific job and deserve to be told in advance of any absences.

Birthday Invitations
Unless every child in the class is being invited, invitations to birthday parties are not to be handed out in class or to be put in child’s diaries. As you can imagine, situations such as this can be very upsetting for children who feel left out. I suggest invitations are mailed or handed out privately and not in public in front of all the children in the class.

Junior School Assemblies
All parents are welcome to attend Junior School assemblies. In the warmer months they are conducted on the Outdoor Assembly area and during the colder months we move into the Kemmis Building. Assemblies begin at 9.00am.

Important Dates for the Calendar
- 11/3/14 HICES Swimming Carnival – Homebush
- 19-21/3/14 Year 3 and 4 Camp – Lake Canobolas
- 7-9/4/14 JS Parent/Teacher Interviews
- 11/4/14 Last day of classes for Term 1

Mini Relay For Life
Next Wednesday, 12th March, the Junior School will be participating in a Mini Relay for Life at 2.15pm on Watson Oval.

As a part of the day, we are also holding a Healthy Morning Tea stall to promote living a healthy lifestyle. All funds will be donated to the Cancer Council. Morning tea snacks will be 50c each and will be sold outside the Year 3/4 classrooms at recess.

Please support this event. Information about how you can donate is on page 5 of this newsletter.
Week 6 already and the children are continually coming up with ingenuity, cooperation and thoughtfulness in their play.

We are talking about families over these 4 weeks and the wonderful, bright posters of our families are interesting, informative and delightful to share. Each student has taken great pride in sharing about their family, interests, cultural heritage and self. Also encouraging is the children’s thoughtful questions they are beginning to ask of each other.

We read Russell and the Lost Treasure by Rob Scotton where Russell finds a treasure chest but is disappointed to just find an old camera in it. He takes photos of his family and realises the great treasure after all.

We have also been exploring the phoneme ‘s’ and have made spider webs and spiders, found ‘s’ pictures, made a large class web and read other award winning books such as Aranea and One Hungry Spider. We visited the town Library with PK2, enjoyed iceblocks from the Yr6 fundraiser and Mrs Parkinson’s Birthday cupcakes without her.

Creating multi storey ramps.

Eliza’s wonderful poster showing All about Me.

We fit in our huge rectangle.

We made a full class sized spider web

What can we do for ‘s’ week. Spontaneous Skiing!

Making rectangles

We all helped to measure, pour, mix and flip.

Pancake Tuesday.

Enjoying Year 6 Iceblock day.

Tiling the doll house floor. Great idea.

Hayden found a star, seat and a smile to put in his letter ‘s’.

We ate Mrs Parkinson’s Birthday cakes for her because she was away! YUM. We gave her a photo though :)

Showjumping and Dressage training

The cricket may have been a wash out but the glorious rain certainly didn’t deter the equestrian team from two days of solid Showjumping and Dressage training last weekend.

Equestrian NSW elite level coaches, Dave Cameron (Showjumping) and 3* Event Rider Tallarah Barwick (Dressage) travelled from the Hawkesbury area to work with the girls as part of the team’s ongoing commitment to training and development.

Whilst the conditions on Saturday tested horse and rider, Sunday saw brighter skies and an opportunity to consolidate Saturday’s efforts with all 20 riders coming away with renewed skills and an eagerness for the upcoming competition season.

Members of the team will contest the Evans Crown Horse Sports Day at Lithgow next Monday, then travel to ‘Stannies’ in two weeks time to compete in the first Interschool Showjumping event of the year. This will be followed up a week later with the SCOTS School Highland Gathering Showjumping competition on the 23rd March and of course, our very own Showjumping Day on Sunday the 11th of May.

These local competitions are a fantastic preparation for the girls as they look towards the two big events of the year, the North West Equestrian Expo and the State Interschool Championships which will be held in June.

A huge thank you to Sarah Wrigley for organising and co-ordinating last weekend’s clinic which was enjoyed by all 18 students, one extremely talented parent and one staff member!!
“Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.” (Psalm 51:1-2, NRSV)

On Wednesday the whole College came together to observe Ash Wednesday. In order to help our College Community understand what Ash Wednesday and Lent are all about, I have reproduced the text of my message to students and staff.

Today is Ash Wednesday, which marks the beginning of the season of Lent. Ash Wednesday is the principal holy day for our Church and is observed by Catholics, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Methodists, and Anglicans among others. Ash Wednesday falls on the seventh Wednesday before Easter and begins a season of fasting and repentance in preparation for the Easter celebration. Today I will talk about the origins of Lent and Ash Wednesday and Lent’s connection to the fasts of the prophets of Old Testament. To repent, fast, give, and pray.

The word Lent comes from the Anglo-Saxon words lecenan, meaning “Spring,” and lencetend, which literally means “Springtide.” Lencetend was also the word for “March,” the month in which the majority of Lent falls.

Since the earliest times of the Church, there is evidence of some kind of Lenten preparation for Easter. St. Irenaeus (who died in 203) wrote to Pope St. Victor I commenting on the differences between practices of the Church in the East and the West. Irenaeus noted that the observance of this fast originated “in the time of our forefathers.” The term, “our forefathers”, is an expression for the apostles, so we can date the practice of Lent back to the time of John, Peter, Paul and the other apostles.

Lent lasts for 40 days excluding Sundays. The number “40” has always had special spiritual significance regarding preparation. On Mount Sinai, preparing to receive the Ten Commandments, “Moses stayed there with the Lord for 40 days and 40 nights, without eating any food or drinking any water.” Elijah walked “40 days and 40 nights” to the mountain of the Lord. Jesus fasted and prayed for “40 days and 40 nights” in the desert before He began His public ministry.

Ash Wednesday dates from at least the 8th Century. One of the earliest descriptions of Ash Wednesday is found in the writings of the Anglo-Saxon abbot Aelfric. In his Lives of the Saints, he writes, “We read in the books both in the Old Law and in the New that the men who repented of their sins bestowed themselves with ashes and clothed their body with sackcloth.” Now let us do this little at the beginning of our Lent that we strew ashes upon our heads to signify that we ought to repent of our sins during the Lenten fast.”

Dressing in sackcloth would be like wearing a wheat bag. Sackcloth was a very rough, itchy material. The pouring of ashes on one’s body and dressing in sackcloth is an ancient practice and is mentioned several times in the Old Testament. We find at the very end of the book of Job, Job, having been rebuked by God, confesses, “Therefore I abhor myself and repent in dust and ashes.” (Job 42:6). Other examples are found in the books of 2 Samuel, Esther, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel. In the New Testament, Jesus mentions the practice in Matthew 11: “Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.”

So as part of our Ash Wednesday observance we begin with repentance. Repentance is saying sorry to God for the things we have done wrong and promising to try to not do them again. Psalm 51 that Alannah read to us reminds us that when we do the wrong thing it is our friendship with God that we damage the most.

We put ashes on our foreheads to show God that we are truly sorry; we turn away from our sins and turn back to him. Soon you will be invited to come forward to have ashes out on your forehead. We will apply ashes in the shape of the cross on your forehead, while speaking the words, “For dust you are and to dust you shall return.” These are the words that God spoke to Adam and Eve after they ate the forbidden fruit and fell into sin. They remind us that the fruit of our sin is death and we need to repent and get right with God before it is too late. The cross reminds us of the good news that through Jesus Christ crucified there is forgiveness for all sins, all guilt, and all shame.

We begin Ash Wednesday by saying sorry to God for the things we have done wrong but it doesn’t end there. As part of our practice for Lent we fast, we give, and we pray.

Fasting means we give something up, usually food. By fasting we remind ourselves of the fast that Jesus endured in the desert. Fasting is a way that we can make ourselves rely more on God and not on ourselves for the things that we need.

But what do we do to observe the fast? Here are three examples. First, on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, have only one full meal and some smaller snacks to keep up your strength and don’t eat meat. Second, on one of the first two Lenten days, don’t eat meat. Third, you may want to give up something for Lent as a sacrifice; it could be your favourite food or drink, your favourite TV show, or your favourite activity. Whatever it is it should represent a sacrifice to you but it is not to be something that you make a big thing of. In our Gospel reading that Gas read we were reminded by Jesus that when we fast we should not look like we are in pain but should look like we normally do.

We are also called to give to others. We may give our money or our time to help other people. By doing this we remind ourselves again of what Jesus gave for us. Jesus constantly calls us to remember our responsibility to give to others and not to hoard things for ourselves. Today we are collecting money for the Mark & Demmanuel families who lost their homes in house fires in January. You may want to give money to other worthy causes like Relay for Life or Anglicare. You may want to volunteer your time to clean up a neighbour’s yard, or go to an Old Folk’s home to play music or games. Whatever it is please think about how you can give of yourself this Lent.

Finally, we are called to pray. As we get ourselves ready for Easter we should try to bring ourselves closer to God. Prayer and reading his word are the ways that we do this. Even though Jesus was the Son of God we still read about him often going off away from the disciples to pray. Jesus knew that the only way that he could stay close to God was to talk with him in prayer. He even taught us a simple prayer to make it easy for us to speak with God. So try to set aside some time each day to read the Bible and to pray to God.

Lent is never mentioned in Scripture and is not commanded by God. Christians are free to either observe or not observe it. It is one of those free-will times when we can show God how much we appreciate what he has done for us.

We should remember though that saying sorry to God, receiving the ashes, fasting, giving, and praying, are all meaningless, even hypocritical, unless we really mean it and try to change our behaviour. This is made clear in Isaiah when God says, “Do you think the Lord wants you to give up eating and to act as humble as a bent-over bush? Or to dress in sackcloth and sit in ashes? Is this really what he wants on a day of worship? I’ll tell you what it really means to worship the Lord. Remove the chains of prisoners who are chained unjustly. Free those who are abused! Share your food with everyone who is hungry; share your home with the poor and homeless. Give clothes to those in need; don’t turn away your relatives. May you come closer to God as you observe this Lent. With all the blessings of Christ, Rev. Tony Card.

Thought for the week: “O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise. For you have no delight in sacrifice; if I were to give a burnt-offering, you would not be pleased. The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.” (Psalm 51:15-17, NRSV)

Next Wednesday 12th March

1 in 2 Australians will be diagnosed with cancer before the age of 85. This startling statistic means that you or someone you know will be touched by this disease.

At 2.15pm next Wednesday the 12th of March, the All Saints’ College Junior School will be taking part in a Mini Relay for Life. We will be walking around our oval, counting our laps as a whole school. We are doing this to raise awareness about cancer and to raise hope for a cancer free future.

How can you help?

1. By supporting our Mini Relay for Life next Wednesday the 12th of March
   - Please send in a gold coin donation so that your child is able to participate in this event
   - You could send in some healthy snacks for us to sell at our stall 😊
   - You could send in some spare change so that your child can buy a healthy snack at Recess time on the day
   - You could send in $1 for a daffodil bulb which your child can take home and plant on behalf of someone special who has suffered because cancer - this will be a living symbol of hope for a cancer free future
   - Discuss with your family, what cancer is and how it affects many people that you know

2. By donating to our team – All Saints’ College Junior School Mini Relay
   - Click on:
     - Fill in your details and follow the prompts (have your credit card handy)
   - Alternatively, you are most welcome to make a cash donation at the Junior School Office or send in extra coins with your child on the day of the Mini Relay
