QUARRY DUST

Reverend Paul Woodhart

Welcome to a new year at All Saints'. We are planning for the Commencement Service this Friday the 3rd of Feb at 10.20am. I hope the weather holds so we can enjoy the outdoor Chapel under the plane trees on the front lawn. Otherwise it's the Bickerdike Centre.

Why do I call this column Quarry Dust? Some rely on the Bible as if it is a crutch. I prefer to imagine it as a quarry from which we cut slabs for building our lives. So at the end of the day dust from this endeavour finds its way on to everything.

Some Class or Chapel group at All Saints' prays the Lord's Prayer at least once a day. There is a familiarity to these words but hidden within them lies a prayer and affirmation of great depth.

Jesus taught his followers this prayer and it is found in Matthew 6:9-13 and Luke 11:2-4.

Let me list these elements of faith which we affirm as we speak.

- | | |
|----------------|------------------------|
| 1 Relationship | Our Father |
| 2 Recognition | in heaven |
| 3 Adoration | Hallowed be your name. |
| 4 Anticipation | Your kingdom come |
| 5 Consecration | Your will be done |
| 6 Universality | On earth |
| 7 Conformity | as in heaven. |
| 8 Supplication | Give us |
| 9 Definiteness | this day |
| 10 Necessity | our daily bread. |
| 11 Penitence | Forgive us |
| 12 Obligation | our sins |
| 13 Forgiveness | as we forgive |

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------------------|
| 14 Love and Mercy | those who sin against us. |
| 15 Trust | Save us |
| 16 Protection | from the time of trial. |
| 17 Salvation | and deliver us |
| 18 Righteousness | from evil. |
| 19 Omnipotence | For yours is the kingdom |
| 20 Humility | the power |
| 21 Reverence | and the glory |
| 22 Timelessness | for ever and ever. |
| 23 Affirmation | Amen. |
- When we pray this prayer we are handling spiritual dynamite.
Yes, God gave the people of dust - us - a tongue with which to praise Him.
Maybe this could be put on your fridge
Father Paul.
