HEAD OF SENIOR SCHOOL

Mr Stewart Ross

WELCOME BACK

Welcome to the 2009 school year and especially our new students and their families. We are pleased to have you as part of our community. We believe that one thing that sets us apart is our friendliness. As I stressed on Orientation Day, when in doubt, please ask someone if you are not sure. I would also like to welcome our new Senior School staff, Mr E Sanger as Director of Boarding and Head of Watson, Mr R McLean teaching Mathematics, Mr D Wilesmith, Mathematics and Computing and Mrs M Hitchick as a Science Laboratory Technician. We wish them well.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN

Fr Paul Woodhart

Welcome back. I hope that our new students are beginning to feel at home.

We are preparing for the Commencement Service, 9.30am this Wednesday (4th) at the Cathedral.

I am pleased that Mr Chris Morgan will give the address. Chris is editing the next edition of the History of All Saints’ College and will bring insights from his studies for the beginning of our year.

The Boarders’ chapel will be at 10am this Sunday morning and I look forward to working with Mr Eliot Sanger to enrich the boarding community week by week.

Work and Pray, Father Paul.

ALL SAINTS’ ANGLICAN CATHEDRAL, BATHURST

JOHN FALLOON - PIANIST

Popular Music from 1900 to the 1960s

at ALL SAINTS’ CATHEDRAL Church Street, Bathurst

on

WEDNESDAY, 4th FEBRUARY AT 12:30 PM

The next All Saints’ Cathedral Lunchtime Recital will be held on Wednesday, 4th February at 12:30pm. The recitalist will be Pianist John Falloon.

John Falloon was born in England and educated in Sussex. On leaving school he studied Medical Photography, gaining a diploma in this field. In between photographic studies he served in the Royal Air Force.

He became the senior photographer in the department of Medical Illustration at the Middlesex Hospital in London. In 1967 he and his family emigrated to Australia. John’s musical training was rudimentary but he found he had a good ear for popular songs. After traveling around Australia as a portrait photographer he settled in Katoomba in 1983, becoming a freelance photographer/journalist with the Blue Mountains Gazette, specializing in motor accidents and cliff rescues. After leaving the Gazette he moved to Lithgow.

During his time in Katoomba he returned to the piano and played at various resorts including the Carrington Hotel, Fairmond resort, the Hydro Majestic, the Victoria and Albert Guesthouse, Lillianfells, Leura House and others. John’s program will not be in the traditional style of set pieces but will be more spontaneous. It will include selections from some of the Rodgers and Hammerstein shows, Cole Porter, Rodgers and Hart, George Gershwin and Ivor Novello.

The All Saints’ Cathedral Lunchtime Recitals occur on the first Wednesday of each month from 12:30 to 1 pm. The aim of this activity is to provide local musicians an opportunity to perform in the context of the Cathedral, including use of the resources of the building - both its instruments and acoustics. There is a gold coin donation which helps finance the music ministry at the Cathedral.

Everyone is invited to bring their lunch and sit and listen to some fine music while enjoying the ambience of the Cathedral building.
