One week left of this term! I cannot believe it! This year has passed far too quickly for me. Many of you will know that my family and I will be joining my husband in Abu Dhabi in December and I am excited for my successor as they will be joining the College at a great time. I cannot begin to tell you how much we will miss everyone here.

We will be inviting our new local students coming into the College in 2010 to join us for Term 4 sport. A letter will be going to them all shortly giving them more detail. It is not compulsory, but will provide a good opportunity to take part and get to know us before they start next year.

For your diaries:
Orientation Day for all Senior School students Years 7 – 12 for 2010 is Friday, 6th November.
Transition T3 and T5 Orientation Day: Friday, 13th November (a lucky date).
Transition T2 Orientation Day: Thursday, 12th November.
Kindergarten 2010 Information Evening: Monday, 16th November
Activities Week (30th Nov – 2 December): Our new students will be invited as part of extending our Orientation Day.
With all of these events more information is already on the way with more to follow.

NOTES again:
We will be commencing interviews for Transition 2011 shortly. So don’t forget any CHANGE to your family details please go to the website and complete the CHANGE OF DETAILS form. Great to see that it is already being used and working!

Equestrian meeting will be Thursday, 1 October at 1pm at the equestrian area.

What a great game of netball my Reds had on Saturday! Going in as the underdogs they played brilliantly. Thank you to my fabulous team - they played hard and remained focused through the season. Fiona Alamyar, Jo Bell, Tara Chan, Maddie Jones, Amy Phillips, Kate Porter, Emma Pullinen, Miriam Randall, Phoebe Sutor and Lucy Thompson - you should all be proud of what you have achieved this year.

Till next week ... Jane
