Weekly Revelations

25 March 2010

---

HEAD OF SENIOR SCHOOL

Mr Stewart Ross

---

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

If you are a parent of a Year 10 or 12 student, please see the section on Special Provisions for the School Certificate and Higher School Certificate in this newsletter.

LITERATURE FESTIVAL

Next Monday to Wednesday sees the 2010 ASC Literature Festival. This year we have had to limit community involvement due to renovations but we will still be having three exciting authors giving workshops and talks: Scott Monk who wrote Boys ‘R’ Us and won the Royal Blind Society’s Talking Book of the year; Lisa Forrest (Olympian, TV and Radio Presenter) - a storyteller for all ages and Dave Hackett who will talk about cartooning in books. A thank you to Mrs O’Brien for organising this wonderful experience.

WAS GIRLS’ BASKETBALL SUCCESS

A number of students represented WAS at the AICES basketball trials last Tuesday. The Under 15s battled in their games as a number of players from another school did not turn up to play for their team. The Open team won all their games except for the Grand Final. Nevertheless, both Kiah and Freya Roebuck have been selected to represent AICES and Ingrid Olbrei is a shadow representative for the Under 15s.

EARTH HOUR

Mr Feebrey made an impassioned plea on assembly for us all to take part in Earth Hour on Saturday night. We are asked to switch off our lights from 8:30pm for one hour. I hope you all will take part in this worthwhile cause.

YEAR 12 VALEDICTORY DINNER 2010

This year we will be changing the venue for the Year 12 Valedictory Dinner. Invitations will be sent out at the beginning of Term 3. However we would like parents to know that with the different venue the cost of the tickets will be $85 each. Students do not need to purchase a ticket.

---

ASC FESTIVAL OF ART

If you know of any artists who would be interested in receiving an invitation to display at our ASC Festival of Art this year, which will run from 21st - 23rd May, could you please contact Reception and leave your details or send an email to maree.crofts@saints.nsw.edu.au. The next meeting regarding the Festival of Art will be the first week back next term on Thursday, 22nd April at 7.00pm in the Junior School Library. All welcome. Maree Crofts

---

Chicken Pox

Notice to parents.

There has been a confirmed case of chicken pox in the school this week.

Host Family needed

The College needs a host family/families for the Assistant Japanese Teacher for Term 2. We also need a host family for Term 3, for an Assistant Teacher whose name is not known yet. Please reply before 29th March to fudeko@ix.net.au

Literature Festival
29th, 30th and 31st March
Three exciting authors, Scott Monk, Lisa Forrest and Dave Hackett will be giving talks and workshops over the three days

Scott Monk
Scott Monk began writing at the age of 13 when a class assignment was set by his Year 8 English teacher. A reluctant reader at the time, he wanted to write something to replace the dull books that bored him to sleep during class. Little did the teacher expect that he would produce a 220 page manuscript - then ask her to mark it! At the age of 19, after several failures, he wrote Boyz ‘R’ Us, which was published when he was 21. Boyz ‘R’ Us won the Royal Blind Society’s Talking Book of the Year Award.

Lisa Forrest
Lisa Forrest is a story teller for all ages. She is many things to many people: actor, author, emcee, TV and radio presenter, interviewer, mother, Olympian. She is an accomplished speaker with a story that is not easy to categorise. While on the surface, a sports story, it would be a mistake to think it has limited appeal. Chasing her own dreams in the face of enormous public expectation, drawing insight and wisdom from the best and the worst personal experiences, she has become that thing so rare to find in these homogenised times - a true individual.

Dave Hackett
Dave Hackett (Cartoon Dave) is the kind of guy who likes to draw nine-headed chickens and people being attacked by toilets. He brought his No-Rules brand of cartooning to TV screens each week for several years on Disney Channel, with his popular cartooning segment airing in Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong and China. He is the author of the hilarious ‘UFO - Unavoidable Family Outing’, novel series (all three books included in the 2009 Premier’s Reading Challenge), along with ‘Norman Enormous’ (2009), his first picture book for young People.
