FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Rev. Tony Card

Tough decisions…
Jesus said, “Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.” (Matthew 5:7, NRSV)

We continue this week considering the issues raised by the Australian Catholic Social Justice Council as we approach the election on Sept 7. This week we consider to issues…

1. To lift income support payments.
2. To increase substantially since 1994. The low rate of the Newstart Allowance – at only $35 a day for singles – is inadequate to meet living costs: heath care, basic shelter, utilities and food.

Over 60% of Newstart recipients have been on the payment for more than five years. Under Welfare to Work this year people who have been displaced by force, with effective projects and new approaches in order to protect their dignity, to improve the quality of their life and to face the challenges that are emerging from modern forms of persecution, oppression and slavery.

QUESTIONS FOR CANDIDATES
How will you support an increase to the base rate of the Newstart Allowance by $50 per week?
How will you ensure allowance payments keep pace with costs of living?
Would you support the establishment of an independent commission to set benchmarks for income support and a standard of living below which no citizen should fall?

… to restore the dignity of asylum seekers.

Australia sees only a tiny proportion of the 45 million people worldwide who are forcibly displaced by persecution and conflict. The greatest burden is borne by developing countries.

For years Australia has been divided by inflammatory debate over asylum seekers. The Catholic Bishops have urged political responses that promote Gospel values of compassion and respect for human life. For Australia, this should be more than a ‘border security’ issue, as we have UN obligations to assist people fleeing their homelands.

Pope Francis recently called on leaders and legislators around the world “to confront the reality of those who have been displaced by force, with effective projects and new approaches in order to protect their dignity, to improve the quality of their life and to face the challenges that are emerging from modern forms of persecution, oppression and slavery.”

QUESTIONS FOR CANDIDATES
How will you lift the standard of political debate and encourage a response of compassion and respect?
How will you ensure Australia meets its international obligations to refugees and asylum seekers?
How will you protect the dignity of asylum seekers and prevent the outsourcing of Australia’s responsibilities to poorer neighbours like Papua New Guinea?

I trust that this assists with your decision making. God bless you, Rev. Tony Card

Thought for the week: A prayer for this election: Lord of every time and place, God beyond our dreaming, we pray for wisdom as we prepare to vote in the Federal election. Give us a Parliament committed to the priorities of your kingdom, so that peace, compassion, truth and justice may prevail among us, and make us a blessing to all peoples, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Anglican Church of Australia National Liturgy Commission)
