ANZAC DAY
Perhaps some of you that live in Bathurst were at the march on ANZAC Day and heard Emma Pullinen from Year 12 give the address. It was a marvellous effort and she represented our school with distinction. A copy of her address will be put on the school website.

NAPLAN
The National Assessment Program – Literacy and Numeracy (NAPLAN) is the national testing program for all Australian students in Years 3, 5, 7 and 9. It commenced in 2008 and takes place in two weeks on Tuesday 14th to Thursday, 16th May. NAPLAN consists of five tests, assessing the following domains; reading, writing, language conventions (spelling, grammar and punctuation) and numeracy. Results for parents will be available later in the year showing individual results in bands, school average and state average. A link for parents with more information about NAPLAN has been emailed to Year 7 and 9 parents.

PARENTS AND FRIENDS
A reminder that the next meeting of the P & F will be held next Tuesday at 6pm in the Computer Labs.

UNIFORMS
It was so pleasing to see nearly all students with their blazers on at Assembly the first day back this term. I do believe there is a shortage of second hand small boys blazers for sale so if you have a spare at home that is not needed, please consider putting it up for sale in our Uniform Shop. Mrs Moller would also like to remind parents to let her know if you want a surname embroidered on the new Koogas when they are available. Please contact her about this.

This weekend All Saints’ are hosting Redfield College.
There will be a BBQ and canteen serving coffee, tea, hot chocolate, cakes, slices etc and sweets.

WE REALLY NEED YOUR HELP AND SUPPORT with cooking on the BBQ and serving behind the counter at the canteen across the day. Just half hour or an hour of your time would be great.

We would also love donations of cakes, slices, muffins etc to sell on the day.

Friends of Rugby meeting - There will be a Friends of Rugby meeting in the Bickerdike at 3.00pm after the 1st XV reception to discuss the year of rugby and nominating a new President.

ALL ARE WELCOME.
What a fabulous three days!
Perfect autumn weather, crowds of happy Bathurstians, hordes of excited children, every baby carriage and stroller in the known universe, endless spruiking on a loud recorded loop, helium balloons bobbing, fabulous College musicians performing in bands and ensembles, ‘dagwood dogs’ aplenty, College equestrian and cattle competition winners, motocross dare devils on bikes, colour, noise, dust and spectacle. These are the principal memories of the writer of the All Saints’ College presence at the 2013 Royal Bathurst Show.

The annual All Saints’ display attracted huge interest. Many College graduates popped in as well as a large number of current families and interested prospective parents (with over 60 ‘show bags distributed to interested families). The highlight for this writer occurred in the early evening on Saturday when our duet (clarinettist/saxophonist the talented Marcus Milton (Y9) and music staff member Mr Jon Clipsham) accompanied the All Saints’ College ‘Happy Hour’ with some excellent jazz arrangements. This was a happy community event for the city and the College.
Too numerous to name individually, our thanks go to the many generous All Saints’ staff, students and the parent body who contributed so much to ensure the notable success of the All Saints’ College exhibit. All eyes are now turned to the “Royal” in 2014.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN
Rev. Tony Card

Jesus said, “No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” (John 15:13 NRSV).

You probably recognise this verse from ANZAC day commemorations. It is often read at ANZAC Day and Remembrance Day services as we remember those who died at war. These men and women have laid down their lives for their friends and for those that they never knew.

There is another aspect to laying down our life that doesn’t require the same level of sacrifice but is just as important, and that is in giving up our time to help others. Over the holidays Dr. Miller and I, along with our sons Alex & Tom went to Coonabarabran to assist with the BlazeAid relief effort following the devastating fires in January this year. Here we encountered a band of men and women who were laying down their lives to help in the clean up and reconstruction of fences and sheds. Some, like us, were only there for a few days, some had been there since the beginning, others were on their second or third trip to Coona, and some were at their third or fourth BlazeAid camp. Many were retired people, but there were also many who had taken time away from their businesses and jobs to help out. Others were giving up their holiday time, including students from St Joseph’s Hunters Hill, along with Alex and Tom. Regardless of where they were from they were all giving up their time to make life easier for the farmers involved.

The volunteers all gave generously of their time. The breakfast team started work at 5.30 am so that a hearty breakfast was ready for everyone at 6.30. After breakfast the teams were mustered at 7.30 for a safety briefing and job allocation, and then it was off to work, returning late in the afternoon. Dinner was served at 6 and was followed by team reports on the day and some entertainment, provided by the talents of the volunteers. One of these volunteers, Jill, had come from the USA. She had a friend in Coona who was impacted and wanted to help. She entertained us one night playing her guitar and singing. Two of her songs were scripture verses put to music. She opened her bible to read and pray and God gave her a message - it is our thought for the week.

We worked on two properties while we were there. The first was at the north western fringe of the fireground about 30km out of town. We helped clean up what was once a shearing shed and yards, now just twisted and burnt metal. We were amazed at the way the pastures had returned so quickly, but the extent of the devastation was still evident in the scrub country, which looked like it had only been burnt a few days ago.

The second property we worked on was 40km out of town on the southern side of the fire. We were shocked to learn that the farm was burnt out not by the main fire, but by back burning efforts to protect the regional communications tower. This fire swept through the entire 3000 acre property and was stopped within 50m of the house and sheds. We pulled down 1.2km of burnt fence and managed to get 400m of new fence up before we had to come home.

Whilst in Coonabarabran I had the honour of presenting a cheque from our chapel collections over term one to Laurie Dawson, the BlazeAid Coordinator and member of the Mayors Bushfire Appeal Committee. We gave half of our collections to Coona and half to flood relief in Grafton, $310 to each appeal. Thank you to all who contributed generously to these causes.

With every blessing,
Rev. Tony Card.

Thought for the week: “When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the LORD your God.” (Isaiah 43:2-3, NRSV).

Morning Muster.
