MOCK TRIAL WIN
On Thursday, 23rd May the mock trial team competed against Lithgow High School in the third round of the competition. The team consisted of Jacob Thompson and Charlotte Brew as barristers, Melanie Lo as solicitor, Tom Nobes and Amelia Bradley as witnesses and David Mackender as court officer. We acted as the defence in a criminal case prosecution instituted against the defendant under the Customs Act 1901-Sect 233. The prosecution purported that the defendant had in his possession, heroin which he had imported into Australia. We tried to show that the defendant (Tom Nobes) was simply a trusting and generous person who had naively agreed to take a suitcase back to an acquaintance’s daughter in Australia. We argued that he had checked the bag for foodstuffs and prohibited items but had no way of knowing that several bags of heroin were concealed in the lining of the bag. It did not help our case that he did not know the person’s surname or any contact details. While we lost the case, we won the important skills side of the trial 298-284 points.

FAST FACT
Think of the engaging elements of why people play games – it’s not just for the points – it’s for the sense of engagement, immediate feedback, feeling of accomplishment, and success of striving against a challenge and overcoming it. The Gamification of Learning and Instruction, Karl Kapp

The Apostle Paul was writing to the new churches in the region of Galatia, in ancient Asia Minor. As you can tell from his comment, he was concerned that these new believers understood the truth and were not dragged off into distorted or false views of salvation. So what was the message that Paul was so keen for them, and us, to understand? Let me cover the three most important aspects of Paul’s teaching.

First, Paul was quite clear that there was only one way for humankind to be reconciled with God and each other, and that was through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. No action on our part can bring about this reconciliation. Belief in other gods is futile - there is only one path to the top of the mountain.

Second, Paul understood and taught that Jesus died for all humankind for the forgiveness of all sin; past, present, and future. Our faith in what Jesus has done secures our salvation - there is no doubt, no question, no ifs, buts or maybe; if we believe in Jesus and what he has done then our eternal future is secure; our earthly death is merely a transition to our eternal life with Christ. Nothing we have done in the past can disqualify us from this future.

Third, Paul knew and taught that the Christian life is not an easy one. He knew first hand of the persecution and suffering that comes with living a life that is counter-cultural, proclaiming a message of love and healing in word and action. Any message that we hear that suggests that being a Christian is all about being healthy, wealthy and happy is a deception. Sure, these things may come; God does bless us for our faithfulness, but it doesn’t mean we are all going to drive luxury cars and live in palatial homes!

Paul knew all too well what it was like to have his life totally transformed by the love of Christ. He wants the same for all of us. Our challenge is to open ourselves to this love and receive Christ into our hearts.

With every blessing,
Rev. Tony Card.

Thought for the week: A quote from Paul, “Do you think I am trying to please people? If I were doing that, I would not be a servant of Christ.” (Galatians 1:10).

Chapel Collection Update

As you are aware, we have set a target of $2000 for our chapel collections for Term 2 with the money going to the Anglicare Pantry Appeal. As at Friday 22nd May we had collected $162, so still a long way to go with half the term behind us. Please give generously if you are able so we can help Anglicare fill many tummies this winter.

ATTENTION ALL GARDENERS!!!!

Your help is needed for the wonderful garden stall for the 2013 Spring Fair......

If you have any bulbs that you wish to donate, the class parents on the garden stall for 2013 are willing to pot them now & water them so they are ready to bloom in Spring.

Alternatively, if you can start planting and thinking about growing any plants early that would be fantastic. Your help is needed for the wonderful garden stall for 2013 Spring Fair…….

Have you heard the following statements from your Year 10, Year 11 or Year 12?

“I’ve chosen that subject because it’s scaled up.”

“I’d really like to do subject A, but I’ve chosen subject B, because the teacher told me it scales better.”

“My ATAR is disappointing. If only I’d realised that most of my subjects were scaled down, I would have chosen different subjects.”

“I won’t do that subject, because it is scaled down.”

The NSW Parents’ Council and Orange Anglican Grammar School invite you to an information evening about scaling in the HSC and how your ATAR is calculated to dispel some of these myths! Carol Taylor, Chief Executive, Board of Studies NSW and George Cooney from UAC will be enlightening parents and students.
