YEARS 7-10 FINAL EXAMINATION
A copy of the timetable for the Yearly examinations for Years 7-10 will be issued to students shortly. They should be starting to organise a revision regime as soon as possible. Teachers should give some guidance to students of what is required for these examinations. Parents, if you are interested, a copy of the timetable will be on the website in the section Letters to Parents.

YEAR 7 AND 8 STUDY SKILLS
Mrs O’Neill held another successful night helping students with their planning and revision regimes for the forthcoming examinations. She reports another full house and if you were unable to attend, please feel free to meet with her for any handouts.

2013/14 HSC ASSESSMENT TASKS
A schedule of HSC Assessment tasks and approximate times has been issued to our current Year 11 students. Also a booklet form the Board of Studies entitled 2014 HSC Rules and Procedures. Students are asked to take note of when assessment tasks are due. Formally, notification of each individual task is issued usually around two weeks before an assessment. Just like the examination schedule mentioned above, a copy of this is also on our website.

ACTIVITIES WEEK
The program for Activities week is just about finalised and students will be taking home a list of the activities and relevant information and costs very soon. They have been asked to discuss this information with parents and a signature will be required indicating parents’ consent. It is important that students are appropriately dressed for activities, which, definitely means enclosed shoes, long pants in some circumstances, no singlets and no girls wearing skimpy tops or short shorts. Girls should know by now my rules on the length of shorts.

FAST FACT
The Year 1956 was a big one for teenagers. Elvis Presley had his first number one in the Billboard Top 100, ushering in the era of rock and roll; Fidel Castro and Che Guevara landed in Cuba, giving student socialists a pin-up to pay homage to forever more; and, perhaps most significant of all, the US educational psychologist Dr Benjamin Bloom published his Taxonomy of Educational Objectives.

This Week’s Sport Draws

From the Chaplain
Rev. Tony Card

For all the Saints

Jesus said “Do to others as you would have them do to you” (Luke 6:31, NRSV)

The first of November is All Saints’ Day. Churches across the world will celebrate this day this Sunday. All Saints’ Day is a special day in the church calendar for us to remember not just the ‘high profile’ saints but the countless millions over the centuries who have devoted their life to serving God and His people.

These are the ordinary people who take the words of Jesus quoted above and live them out. We have seen their actions vividly displayed over the last two weeks with the bushfire crisis and we give thanks for their efforts, but we should also remember the somewhat unseen saints that don’t make the evening news. People who give of their time and money to support the poor, the homeless, and the needy. People who volunteer to read to children at school, who volunteer to teach students about God in our Christian Studies classes and Special Religious Education classes in the Public School System. Teachers who give up their lunchtime, weekends and holiday time to hold special classes for students who need some extra help. I could go on and on…

We can all belong to the company of saints. We don’t need to take on major projects - the little things do make a big difference. We have a wonderful opportunity with our College community to make a big difference to the lives of others, e.g. if every student brought one item of non-perishable food for the Christmas Miracle Appeal then we would have several trolley loads of food to give.

When we do for others as we would have them do for us we make a huge difference in their lives and we make a positive difference to our own.

God bless you,
Rev. Tony Card.

Thought for the week: “I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers.” (Ephesians 1:15-16, NRSV)

From the buzzing city of Lima, we fly across the backbone of the Andes to our Amazon jungle lodge to explore the tropical rain forest. While in Cusco and the Sacred Valley we wander the Quechuan Indian markets and discover a variety of Spanish colonial and ancient Inca heritage. Machu Picchu provides a grand finale to our trek along the Classic Inca Trail. Our unsurpassed expertise in organising treks in the Andes comes to the fore as we ascend from the jungle to the snow capped Andean peaks to complete our spectacular trek. Travelling to Lake Titicaca, we visit the Uros Indians who live on floating reed islands, before crossing the dramatic Altiplano to the thriving Bolivian capital of La Paz.

Full Time Camping Ministry Staff Needed

Summit Educational Camps runs around 100 school camps a year, mostly for independent schools. Starting January 2014. We are looking for full time staff who are committed Christians with a passion for sharing the Gospel in a relevant way with children from Kindergarten to Year 12. We are currently accepting applications for our next intake.

Fellowships. “Fellows” undergo a 2-year training program with Summit, they lead on camps, and receive training leading to the award of the nationally recognised Certificate II & Certificate III in Outdoor Recreation, as well as credit towards theological qualifications (currently in the form of Moore College’s Preliminary Theological Certificate). Training includes skills such as abseiling, rock climbing, canoeing, sailing, BMX, high & low ropes, as well as training in doctrine, and small group leading and facilitation. Fellows receive a training allowance package as well as board and lodging while on camp. There is no charge for all the training received.

The Fellowship training program, which has been running for more than 20 years, is a fantastic opportunity for those who have a love of kids and a desire to be equipped for ministry.

We are currently receiving applications for this position, and will be interviewing throughout October and November. We get applicants from all walks of life, so if you have work commitments or exams that clash with this timing, we can be flexible with the scheduling of interviews and trial camps.

For information & application forms please contact:
