COUNTRY TO CANBERRA

Year 11 student Tasha Hurley entered the 2016 Country to Canberra Leadership competition with great success. Tasha addressed the question ‘Why is gender equality important to you and your community’? The competition is open to female students who are 15 years of age or over and attending a school located more than 50 kilometres away from a city with a population 80,000 persons or more. Tasha, who hails Condobolin, is passionate about the role of rural women and their importance not only in their own community, but nationally and internationally. Tasha submitted one of the top 25 entries from across Australia and her inspiring essay has been published on the Country to Canberra website to showcase her talents on a national scale. For more information including a link to Tasha’s entry go to the news section of the College website.

YEARS 7-10 FINAL EXAMINATIONS

A copy of the timetable for the yearly examinations for 7 -10 should be issued to students early next week. Students should be starting to organise a revision regime as soon as possible. Teachers should give some guidance to students of what is required for these examinations. Parents, if you are interested, a copy of the timetable will on the College website in the ‘Letters to Parents’ section.

There are some people who use the Bible as a crutch; I would prefer to use the Bible as a quarry. Hence this will be the heading for my column.

I happened to visit the Art Rooms where some Year 9 students were working on their lino prints. I was delighted to see the complex results which were emerging. However some of the students quietly commented about their own work: ‘It’s not very good’. Well I thought each one was a work of art! I could not rise to that accomplishment. Who are we comparing our work with? Each lino cut was the first and who knows what the result would be after the 50th. Accomplishment takes sweat, perseverance and many attempts. School is the place to test and try. One of my potter friends offhandedly commented that it takes one tonne of clay before a potter can even begin to be accomplished. There is a line from The Chapel Perilous which goes: “Sweat is petrol for our dreams” so keep persevering.

Operation Christmas Child shoe box numbers are growing and thanks to Mrs Lucinda Wells for her leadership. There will be a final packing at the Chapel on Friday afternoon.

The Festival of All Saints’ is on Sunday 6 November. The Cathedral will have one service at 9am, for what we call the Patronal Festival. The boarding staff will be taking the boarders in to the service. I am asking them to wear full uniform for the occasion and my wife Jenny and I are inviting the Year 11 Boarders back to our home for lunch.

Looking further ahead our College Carol Service is in the Calendar for Wednesday 6 December, the evening before Presentation Day. This year we will have one service at 6pm.

Over the years the special gem has been the Kindy Pageant. This will continue under the guidance of Mrs Gabrielle Darlington and there will be an Australian theme to the music. This weekend may contain elements of an American import. This has nothing to do with the Christian Faith and I don’t think we should even give it oxygen. Our Faith is about a God who calls for light and truth. It has angels and glory; it has the hope of Christmas and the mystery of Easter. I quote St Paul as he writes to the Christians at Philippi: ‘Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things…and the God of peace will be with you.’

Now back to the quarry...

The Rev’d Paul Woodhart.

Search on for Equestrian, Sheep and Cattle Captains

Are you sick of just horsing around?
Would you like to take cattle into battle?
Do you want to lead the sheep rather than follow like one?

Well we have the jobs for you with expressions of interest open for the positions of Equestrian, Cattle and Sheep Captains for 2017.

If you’d like to show off your human (and animal) leadership skills in one of these roles you need to write a one page letter to the Head of College outlining why you wish to apply and what credentials you have to offer.

Your letter must be lodged at the Head of College’s office no later than Friday 4 November 2016.

If you have any questions please contact the Agriculture Department.
Victoria and Claudia lead the ASC charge at Tamworth extravaganza

Equestrian

Five members of the ASC equestrian team traveled to Tamworth recently to compete in the Inter-schools Horse Extravaganza.

The four day event had something for riders of all disciplines including sporting, showjumping, eventing, dressage and hacking.

The ASC contingent consisted of Victoria Hoy, Tabitha Snell, Claudia and Adelaide Cunningham and myself (Jazmin Johnston).

Some of the girls were lucky enough to come away with some great results including Victoria winning the 16 and over sporting and placing 2nd in one of her showjumping rounds

Claudia won her eventing division, placed sixth and seventh in dressage and sixth overall in showjumping.

Adelaide placed seventh in the eventing and 5th in her dressage test.

I think it’s safe to say that Tamworth was a great event and that we all took something away from it regardless of results.

On behalf of the girls I’d like to say thank you to Mr Whitfeld for coming to the event to be the team manager.

Thanks also to the girls for a great event, you all represented the school really well.

Jazmin Johnston

ATTENTION EQUESTRIAN FAMILIES!

Please save the date of Friday 18 November for the 2016 ASC Equestrian Dinner.

Full details will be advised soon.

Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability

Background to the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability

In May 2013, all Education Ministers from Commonwealth, state and territory governments endorsed the implementation of a nationally consistent collection of data on school students with disability in all Australian schools (government, independent and Catholic).

The nationally consistent approach to data collection provides all Australian schools, education authorities and the community with a clear picture of the number of students with disability in schools and the adjustments they are provided to enable them to participate in education on the same basis as other students.

Authority for the collection of information for the purposes of the NCCD

The Australian Education Regulation 2013 (the Regulation) (www.comlaw.gov.au/Details/F2014L01723) requires the operators of government and non-government schools (approved authorities) to provide information to the Australian Government Department of Education and Training (the department) for the purposes of the NCCD.

The information that approved authorities must give to the department is set out at subsection 58A(2) of the Regulation. This includes, in relation to each student with a disability at a school operated by the approved authority:

- the student’s level of education (i.e. primary or secondary)
- the student’s category of disability (i.e. physical, cognitive, sensory or social/emotional)
- the student’s level of adjustment (i.e. support provided within quality differentiated teaching practice, supplementary, substantial or extensive adjustment).
The information will not identify individual students (subsection 58A(3) of the Regulation); no information that could reasonably enable the department to identify individual students will be provided by approved authorities to the department.\(^1\)

Other details about the information to be collected and the format in which the information is to be provided to the department, will be contained in guidelines approved by the Education Council (the committee of the Council of Australian Governments comprising the Commonwealth and state and territory Ministers responsible for education). The NCCD guidelines are available on the department’s website at www.education.gov.au/nationally-consistent-collection-data-students-disability-guidelines

Collection and disclosure of school level information

The information collected by schools for the purposes of the 2016 national data collection will ultimately be provided to the department. In some cases this will involve the school passing the data directly to the department and in other cases the school will provide the data to its state and territory government agency or other relevant body, depending on the school’s particular arrangements. The state and territory government agency or other body will further de-identify school level data, and may aggregate the data at the state and territory level, before providing the data to the department.

The department, on behalf of the Joint Working Group,\(^2\) will use the information collected for the purposes of preparing reports for and briefing the Australian Education Systems Officials Committee and the Education Council in relation to the NCCD. For the purposes of preparing these reports or briefing material, the department will ensure that the information is aggregated sufficiently so that no student’s identity could reasonably be ascertained.

The aggregated information held by the department may also be used as an input to policy development for future funding and other policy requirements as required by the Education Council.

\(^1\) In the event that NCCD information given by an approved authority to the department does indirectly enable the department to reasonably identify an individual, the disclosure of that information by the approved authority, and the collection of that information by the department, are both authorised by law for the purposes of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Nevertheless, the department will seek to de-identify NCCD information that inadvertently contains identifying information.

The department’s Privacy Policy, including further information about how individuals can access and correct personal information the department may hold, or how to make a privacy complaint to the department, is available at www.education.gov.au/privacy.

\(^2\) The Joint Working Group to Provide Advice on Reform for Students with Disability is comprised of representative members from all state and territory government educational authorities, Independent Schools Council of Australia, the National Catholic Education Commission, the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority, and the Australian Government.
The department will not otherwise disclose any personal information to third parties, including overseas recipients, without consent or unless authorised or required by law.

Contact

For further information about the collection, use or disclosure of information for the NCCD please contact: SWDPolicyTeam@education.gov.au.
